Liberals Lose Ground—Old Party Plan Approved

LONDON — (By Associated Press) — The people of Great Britain have put a crushing end to their first experiment with a Labor government, by returning the Conservative party to power in parliament with one of the longest majorities recorded during the last century.

In this sweeping political change, the Liberal party has sunk to the weakest position it has experienced since the realignment of British political parties more than 90 years ago at the time of the reform bill.

With 545 out of the 615 seats in the house of commons accounted for at 4 p. m today, the Liberals had won only 37, and the Conservatives had already captured 359 and were increasing their lead constantly as the returns came in from the country districts Labor had won 137 seats and was thus assured of being the official opposition party in the new parliament.

LONDON — (By Associated Press) — A great Conservative victory in yesterday's general election of a new parliament to succeed the one which was dissolved after the Labor government of Ramsey MacDonald was defeated on the question of the Campbell prosecution, became more and more apparent this afternoon Returns showed Conservative gains in every section of the country at the expense of both the Liberals and the Laborites.

Conservatives 167 seats, Labor 7 Liberals 24, other parties [illegible] Total 273

The decline of the Liberals is far is believed in some quarters to foreshadow ultimate [illegible] of the many recent elections that this election will sound their death knell as a distinct party

Some observers see in yesterday's polling return a strong indication of preference for the two party system which stood the test of centuries in this country.

LABORITES LOSE

With nearly 7,000 votes counted Laborites had polled only [illegible] 000 less ballots than the Conservatives, while the Liberals who last year received almost as many votes as the Laborites were far behind The [illegible] at 3 o'clock this [illegible] was:

Conservative 3,112,108, Labor [illegible] 186,78[illegible], Liberals 1,086,[illegible] Constitutionalists 39,109, Independents 53,035, Cooperatives 44,292, Communists 65,[illegible]

Women fared rather badly in the constituencies thus far making their declarations Lady Astor added another victory to her [illegible] as candidate for the Sutton division of Plymouth, but at [illegible] hour the only woman [illegible] to keep her company was [illegible] Wilkinson, Laborite from [illegible] East

In addition to Miss Margaret Bondfield member for Northampton in the last parliament and also a member of the MacDonald government, the feminine [illegible] the house suffered the [illegible] Miss Susan Lawrence Laborite who was defeated in [illegible] North, by the Bale [illegible] tive candidate

ASQUITH DEFEATED

The [illegible] erest blow for the liberals was the defeat of former [illegible] Asquith whose loss to Laborite Mitchell in Paisley [illegible] the Liberal record of 92 [illegible] that constituency.

The liberal leader took his defeat [illegible] ngly but afterward admitted profound disappointment [illegible] he regretted severance [illegible] connections with Paisley "[illegible] the time being at any rate" [illegible] from all party considerations his loss is generally deplored as the disappearance, temporarily at least, of one of the country's most distinguished [illegible] men.

Between breakfast and luncheon today ten constituencies which went against Conservatism [illegible] 1923 had transferred their strength to that party, seven of the Conservative gains coming from the Liberals and the other three from Labor

Geographically the changes covered roughly the entire country, the Conservatives picking up

Twenty five special police working under jurisdiction of Police Chief T A Lanker start Thursday night to patrol the city for prevention of wanton destruction of property by youths in perpetration of Hallowe'en jokes

Special police in plain clothes on bicycle and in automobiles, will patrol residential districts leaving uniformed police for duty in the business district and available for answering of emergency calls

Reports compiled at police headquarters indicate that property damage here during the past week aggregates nearly $1,000 with the greater portion of the loss during the past few nights

DEMOCRATS PLEDGE NEW TARIFF LAW

Davis Points Out Unfairness of Present Schedules

WOULD REWRITE MEASURE

Farmer Hard Hit by Fordney-McCumber Act

NEW YORK—(By Associated Press)—The third statement of the series prepared by John W Davis, Democratic candidate for president, for the purpose of summing up outstanding campaign issues, was made public today. It was confined exclusively to a discussion of the Fordney-McCumber tariff bill which the candidate has declared will be rewritten if he is elected and is given the support of a Democratic congress.

In renewing his promise for lower schedules, Davis made it clear that he harbored no resentment toward legitimate business fairly conducted but would "withdraw the invitation extended in the form of exorbitant rates of duty, to profit thru monopolistic control of production, markets and prices"

The statement follows in part.

"TARIFF IS WRONG"

"I believe that the Fordney-McCumber bill is utterly wrong Those who profit by it are enjoying an unjust exaction The owners of a few industries may enjoy undue prosperity but the public at large must pay the bill and I do not believe that there can be permanent prosperity unless our system of taxation both direct and indirect is for the benefit of all the people, and not for a favored few

"The Fordney McCumber bill was both a fence and an offense It was a fence against normal trade with other nations and it was a grievous offense against every consumer in the United States and especially against the farmers who were left outside the scope of its apparent benefits It might have been appropriately entitled 'an act to obstruct our foreign commerce, to increase the prices of what the farmer buys and to reduce the price of what he sells'"

POINTS TO FAIR LAW

"The Democratic Underwood Simmons bill was the only tariff since the Civil war to be passed without suspicion of unfairness or partiality Under it industry flourished and employment grew The country enjoyed an era of prosperity unexcelled in all its history There were 14 per cent more men employed in August 1914 under the Underwood tariff than there were employed in July, 1924 under the Fordney bill

"The Fordney McCumber act has inflicted hardships and sacrifice upon all the people of the United States, and has made the burden heaviest for those least able to bear it"

Davis remained at his home in Locust Valley today resting in preparation for a tour of Long Island tonight Three speeches were scheduled

In an open statement directed at Davis Dye said

"Under a ruling of the Attorney General the jurisdiction of the tax commission ceases after certification is made but this particular case was reopened and the attorney general's ruling mattered not altho it was followed in all other cases

"The reduction meant a saving of at least $150,000 in taxes in one year to the railroad

"Since his tax commissioners were unable to give any reason for their action at that time, Mr Davis before he leaves the stump, ought to enlighten the public"

Health Survey to Be Ordered at Next Meeting

Residents of Eureka-st are battling a vermin invasion by thousands of pests reported to have originated from waste paper collected by a junk dealer mentioned in the city's warfare against hazardous and unsanitary conditions existing at yards along junk peddlers' row."

Tenants threaten to move Property owners face losses thru depreciation of property value. A condition requiring drastic and immediate action is reported by residents to exist

City commissioners will be asked to declare some junk yards a nuisance by property owners appearing before commission meeting Monday night A representative of at least 30 families suffering from the vermin invasion promises to present true facts to commissioners

Sanitary investigation by city health authorities will be demanded with City Manager C A Bingham and Commissioner Earl Rohn, the father of the junk yard warfare, recommending such action to bring the condition to a showdown.

IN ARMS

Property owners are up in arms and city officials during the past few days have been besieged with complaints to do something to regulate activities of junk dealers.

The roach invasion took place Sunday shortly after a car of paper had been loaded at the Eureka-st siding according to Ernest Heil, of Val Heil & Sons coal dealers who claim that thousands of the pests swarmed into houses and along the railroad siding The ground was brown with the vermin

Visitors at dinner at a home at 330 E Eureka-st left the table unable to eat because of the presence of the roaches Heil told Manager Bingham at a protest conference Thursday morning

"People don't know how bad conditions are Heil said "The homes in that vicinity are filled with such pests and the ground in the vicinity of the siding where the waste paper was loaded indicates that the pests came from the paper which probably had been kept in storage for months

Pest invasion is but one angle in the property owners and city's campaign against dealers on scrap iron row Junk piled on the streets endangers pedestrians Junk wagons on Sunday morning block public sidewalks and sanitary conditions around those places of business are claimed to need the attention of the city health department

An amendment to the junk dealers' license law comes up for enactment Monday night with provisions that before a permit is granted for operation of a junk business the city manager is to be satisfied regarding buildings and have jurisdiction to prevent spread of such enterprises into residential districts

Twenty churches were represented each of which sent its minister and one layman. The meeting conducted under the auspices of the Lima Ministerial association and the Allen co Council of Churches. Rev. F. Brice Jacobs president of the latter organization was chairman of the meeting.

PLANS OUTLINED

A committee of three with T. J. Snow of Trinity church as chairman and Rev. F. W. Hoernemann pastor of First Reformed and Rev. Victor Smith rector of Christ church, Episcopal was appointed some time ago to make an analysis of the religious situation locally and to make recommendations to renewing the interest of Lima people in their churches. Following is the program the committee outlined at the meeting:

Make a complete religious survey of the city with each church having a committee of four laymen and the pastor to handle the work and a general chairman over all the committees.

—After the survey each church is to have a month of visitation, during which period all its members will have been reached.

—A pre-Easter evangelistic campaign with a general holy week during the Easter period.

The representatives at the meeting unanimously adopted the program and named T. R. Pearman, "Y" general secretary a general chairman of the movement which is said to be the biggest thing of its kind ever attempted here.

Fox trots from Pacific Coast organizations of immeasurably more than coast repute. The first soft-toned with brisk tempo; the second in moderate tempo with strongly marked rhythms.

FRANCE SLICES MILITARY

Imperialism Charge Fades in Herriot Regime

U. S. POSITION DOUBTED

Compulsory Enlistment Term Cut 50 Percent

PARIS—(By United Press) — France believes that in her approval of the Geneva protocol on arbitration, security and disarmament she has finally and definitely refuted the charges of militarism and imperialism.

These charges have been repeated since the World war, both in other capitals of Europe and in North and South America.

The removal from France of the onus of militarism and imperialism is likely to go down as one of the biggest accomplishments of the administration of Edouard Herriot, the radical premier of France.

French diplomats hope that this change of policy brought about by Herriot—if there has been any fundamental change of policy rather than an explanation of France's real intentions — will have a telling effect especially in the United States.

The Quai d'Orsay (French Foreign Office) points out that France has put herself on record by her peaceful policies at the Fifth Assembly of the League of Nations recently at Geneva. With hardly a moment's hesitation, the French government approved, and her delegates signed, the Geneva protocol on arbitration, security and disarmament. It is pointed out here that the other great powers, such as Great Britain, did not go so far in this respect as France, withholding their actual signatures at Geneva, for further consideration of the protocol.

The French Foreign Office also point out these important steps that have been taken by France in the direction of disarmament and world peace. During the last five years France has reduced by 50 per cent the length of the period for obligatory military service; reduced by 25 per cent the strength of her military forces, and reduced by 50 per cent her naval forces.

None of the nations that is so radically in favor of disarmament and so opposed to militarism and imperialism, has gone so far as France, it is said here.

France regards as highly important from the standpoint of the United States the arbitration provisions of the new Geneva protocol. Her diplomats point out that American statesmen for the past 100 years have made the principle of arbitration one of the most important goals toward securing world peace.

French officials in discussing this comparison leave hanging, of course, the question whether the United States, therefore, should not adhere to the protocol.

The question of the relation of the United States to the League of Nations—or lack of relation—if anything, has become more delicate as the result of the Geneva protocol, it is thought here.

DEATH PENALTY IS INVOKED FOR FIRST TIME IN 22 YEARS

BERNE, Switzerland — The death penalty was inflicted yesterday in Switzerland for the first time in 22 years. At Altdorf, capital of the Canton of Uri, Clement Bernet was guillotined for the murder of a young girl who surprised him while in the act of burglary.

There is no official executioner in Uri and the authorities had difficulty in finding any one to carry out the sentence. A train hand who offered to do the job for 500 francs was forbidden by the federal railway management when other employes threatened to strike if he were allowed to cast "discredit" upon them. At the last moment a mechanic was induced to pull the trigger releasing the knife.

Bernet was the least concerned person at the execution. Becoming converted while in prison, he refused an appeal for commutation and as he approached the scaffold he tore the black hood from his head, exclaiming:

"My victim stared death in the face; it is but just that I do likewise."

SHIPS DAMAGED IN STORM

Tanker Burns; 6 Men Missing —$100,000 Loss

SAN FRANCISCO — (By Associated Press) — Largely as a result of storms sweeping inland from the North Pacific ocean the last three days, several coastwise vessels were in difficulties today.

The motor ship Shark, a 64 ton craft, was reported on the rocks on the northern California coast, near the Oregon border.

The crew was not believed to be in immediate danger. Further north the lumber schooner Trinidad was stalled with a broken rudder.

From Point Lobos came the report that the French schooner Roy Somers had suffered damage to steering gear and other equipment and was being towed to port by a tug.

The tanker Alden Anderson of the Associated Oil Company, was burned at Avon, about 180 miles north of Oakland. Reports said several members of the crew jumped overboard and six had not been accounted for. Damage to the ship and surrounding property was placed at $1,000,000.

The blaze started when a section of the pier caved in as the tanker was unloading crude oil.

The steamers Mayfair, Wilmington and Catherine were buffeted outside the Eureka bar before they could enter.

SUBMARINE HITS REEF; CREW RESCUED AT DAWN

HONOLULU — Navy officials announced that the submarine R-1 had been ashore on a soft coral reef at the entrance to Honolulu harbor since midnight Tuesday. The officers and crew numbering 25 were rescued at dawn yesterday.

The submarine, returning from a cruise to Kauai Island, struck the reef about a mile off shore. She was on the surface at the time. Naval tugs are at the scene and it is expected the submarine will be floated.

WOMAN SHERIFF

English City Honors Wife of Local Tailor

CANTERBURY, Eng — (By Associated Press) — This ancient cathedral city has just revived custom of medieval times by conferring the office of sheriff upon a woman. Incidentally the recipient of the honor, Mrs. Lucy Green Wells, the wife of a local tailor, has the distinction of being the only woman in England to hold such an office.

"My chief duty as sheriff," Mrs. Wells said recently, "is to appear with the mayor and councillors on special occasions wearing my purple robe, with the silver chain of office round my neck.

"Nowadays the under-sheriff is responsible for most of the actual work in connection with the office, but there are still certain functions I preform. If a Canterbury man had to be hanged, for instance, I believe I should have to sign the document certifying that the execution had been properly carried out."

There were women sheriffs aplenty in the middle ages, and in those days they had to shoulder heavy fiscal, military and administrative burdens. One of the first notable women of the middle ages to hold the office was Ella, Countess of Salisbury, who was sheriff of Wiltshire.

Government Studies Income Tax Publication Reports

WASHINGTON — (By United Press) — Attorney General Stone today called up U. S. attorneys in sections where income tax returns were printed most "freely" to report to him the newspapers which appeared to be the best targets for government prosecution.

In selecting the test case or cases Stone will be guided by the reports of the attorneys which will be studied to determine where the apparent law has been most wilfully violated.

Stone would not specify which attorneys had been called for the evidence. He said, however, two papers in particular had been singled for special investigation.

"We have not necessarily restricted ourselves to prosecution of one newspaper," Stone told the United Press, "but may, if the evidence warrants, decide to institute several test cases."

This delightful design reproduces and combines into a single rug traditional and authentic features chosen from the most famous of the so-called "hunting or animal carpets" of the Sixteenth Century.

A few of these rare rugs have come down to us as treasures of the great national museums, some we find only in old prints, while others we know only through history. Most hunting carpets were woven on the court looms of the emperors. They depict wild animals driven into the corrals for the royal huntsmen. The backgrounds are the most exquisite of floral ornament and decoration, these give a verdure tapestry effect which predominates and overshadows the birds and animals just as Nature wraps around them the protecting mouth of the jungle.

HOLIDAY BUYING TO BE HEAVY

Christmas Savings Accounts Total $300.000

PROSPERITY PREDICTED

Lower Selling Prices Seen by Manager Morton

An unprecedented amount of buying in Lima this Christmas is foreseen by James E. Morton, manager of the Lima Board of comerce.

Morton bases his prediction on the fact that local banks with Christmas savings accounts will this year send out a greater amount of checks than in any year pervious, and also because the mental attitude of the consuming public has been changed for the better.

Local banks this year will send out checks totalling an aggregate of more than $300,000, it is roughly estimated. A great percentage of this will be expended locally for Christmas gifts.

COMPLETE STOCKS

Lima merchants this year have a line of merchandise in stock that is vastly more complete than that of any previous Christmas season, Morton said Thursday. Most of the stocks were purchased months ago when they could be bought at a considerable saving to the merchants, and the consumers will ultimately benefit in this saving in lower selling prices.

"A dollar this year will purchase exactly a dollars worth of merchandise," Morton said. "We are looking for heavy buying this Christmas season because the public sees prosperous times ahead and therefore will not be afraid to spend money for gifts."

Of the banks having Christmas savings accounts reports were made by six Thursday. They are the Lima Trust Co., the Old National Bank, First American bank, South Side Building and Loan association, Lima Home Savings association and the Dime Savings bank.

THEY QUARREL BY TURNS

George Kapoun and his wife of Chicago can talk back to each other on three separate days of the week. But on Sunday they must not quarrel, Judge Harry Lewis has decreed. It is the first of a "take your turn at battle" experiment which Judge Lewis is trying out to keep married folks out of the divorce courts. The Kapouns were on the verge of separating until this plan was suggested.

Airedale Sick; Gloom Filling White House

WASHINGTON—(By Associated Press)—There is gloom at the White House, despite optimistic campaign reports. Paul Prye, the playful airedale pet of Mr. and Mrs. Coolidge, is in the veterinary hospital.

The dog, a constant companion of Mrs. Coolidge on her frequent strolls about the city and about the house, has been operated upon for a cold abscess.

The frisky airedale, just past puppyhood, is a familiar figure about the White House. When separated from Mrs. Coolidge, he has taken it upon himself several times to slip into the president's room in the executive office, and his absence is noticeable thereabouts. Reports from the hospital, however, say Paul Prye soon will be out again.

Her Blonde Hair Was Darkening

—But New Light-Hair Shampoo Brought Back Its Natural Rich Golden Color and Gleaming Luster.

Her blonde hair was becoming dull, streaky, faded and lustreless. She had tried nearly everything to bring back its original beauty. All had failed. Then her hairdresser recommended Blondex, the wonderful new shampoo, prepared for blonde and light hair only. Just one shampoo and her hair became much lighter. Then in an unbelievably short time it was the same charming blonde shade that formerly was so much admired. Her friends soon noticed the marvelous change. Now, you, too, can bring back the natural color to darkened blonde hair. If your hair is already beautifully blonde, Blondex will keep it that way. Acts in a perfectly natural way. Leaves no oil behind to form sticky film, on which dirt and dust collect—causing light hair to darken. Gives a wonderful thick lather. Makes hair soft and silky. No injurious dyes or chemicals. Highly recommended for children's hair. Your dealer will promptly return its small cost if you are not more than delighted with results. Get Blondex today, at all good dealers such as: Kingsler Drug Co., Hunter's Drug Stores, Argonne Drug Store, Fred L. Butler, A. T. Baldwin. adv

She was undamaged and is proceeding on her voyage to New York.

Facts About Child-birth

It has been proven conclusively that much of the suffering, pain and dread experienced during expectancy, as well as at child-birth is entirely unnecessary.

An eminent physician, Dr. J. H. Holmes, expert in this science, first produced the great remedy "Mother's Friend," which aids the muscles and tissues to expand more easily, during the constant readjustment, month after month, right up to the climax of child-birth.

"Mother's Friend" is applied externally. Three generations of expectant mothers have used it. "Pains disappeared in two days after using 'Mother's Friend,'" writes a user. "I owe my life to 'Mother's Friend,'" declared another. Use "Mother's Friend" as our mothers and grandmothers did. Start today and experience the wonderful comfort it will give you.

FREE BOOKLET Write Bradfield Regulator Co., Dept. B-A25, Atlanta, Ga., for free booklet giving many facts every expectant mother should know. "Mother's Friend" is sold at all good drug stores—everywhere.

BELVIDERE, N. J. — (By Associated Press)—The body of Frank Thomas, held in jail here as a material witness in the slaying of his wife, Mrs. Grace Thomas, was found hanging in his cell in the Warren-co jail here today by Warden Smith.

He had hung himself by his suspenders. The body of his wife was found in an abandoned iron mine near Oxford on Tuesday. He was transferred to the Fleming jail in ...-co, where Prosecutor Miller, it is said, planned formally to charge him with murder.

LAKE FREIGHTER SINKS WITH CARGO OF GRAIN

STOMACH UPSET?

Get at the Real Cause—Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That's what thousands of stomach sufferers are doing now. Instead of taking tonics, or trying to patch up a poor digestion, they are attacking the real cause of the ailment—clogged liver and disordered bowels.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets arouse the liver in a soothing, healing way. When the liver and bowels are performing their natural functions, away goes indigestion and stomach troubles.

Have you a bad taste, coated tongue, poor appetite, a lazy, don't-care feeling, no ambition or energy, trouble with undigested foods? Take Olive Tablets the substitute for calomel.

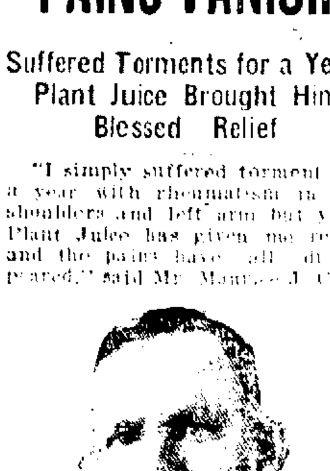

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil. You will know them by their olive color. They do the work without griping, cramps or pain.

Take one or two at bedtime for quick relief. Eat what you like. 15c and 30c.

Suffered Torments for a Year; Plant Juice Brought Him Blessed Relief

"I simply suffered torment for a year with rheumatism in my shoulders and left arm but your Plant Juice has given me relief and the pains have all disappeared," said Mr. Maurice J. Conners, well known railway man, living at 17 Irms Terrace, Columbus, Ohio, and who is employed by the Hocking Valley Railway Company.

MR. MAURICE J. CONNERS

"I was in the hospital eleven weeks with this rheumatism. And besides the rheumatism, I was troubled badly with my stomach. I had to be very careful about what I ate and the little food I did take into my stomach did not digest right but would sour and ferment and fill me up with gas so that I became short of breath. My bowels were constipated; liver was sluggish and I was often bilious and so dizzy that I couldn't even stoop over to button my shoes. And in addition, I was so nervous I could hardly sleep but would lie awake for hours almost every night.

"I noticed improvement before the first bottle of Plant Juice was gone and since I have continued to take it, I am relieved of my suffering. I eat anything without misery afterward no gas, bloating or shortness of breath. My liver and kidneys work fine, the pains in my back are gone and the biliousness and dizzy spells have been r... In addition, my nerves are quieted so that I sleep soundly. ... of all is that the rheumatic pains have disappeared entirely. The truth is that I am better in every respect; am working every day now, and I gladly indorse Plant Juice."

"JAKE" CHARGES ARE HURLED

G. O. P. Chiefs Attack Mathers Record on Prohibition

FITZGERALD IS LAUDED

Attempt to Split Democrats Doomed to Failure

(BY POLITICO)

A. eleventh hour attempt of a character that would be ludicrous were it not so pathetic, has been sprung in the fourth district congressional campaign by managers of "Doc" W. T. Fitzgerald, of Greenville, Republican candidate in a vain effort to defeat Judge Hugh T. Mathers, of Sidney.

Mathers has swept thru the fourth district like a prairie fire and his election is practically assured. In the vain hope of heading him off, Republican managers have dragged the hackneyed wet and dry issue to the fore to ... the unthinking voters into ... for "Doc" by trying to show Mathers is lined up with ... As a campaign can... declared to be apple ...

... letter and map has been sent ... to voters in the district. The map purports to show territory that voted for ... in preference to Ludwig ... the primary August 12. ... map a crude affair showing ... outlines of the fourth ... has a few townships in ..., Darke and Shelby-cos ... to represent wet territory. The rest of the map is left ...

The assumption, no doubt, is ... all of the unshaded territory was opposed to Mathers, ... that he was nominated by ... of 14 townships out of ... than 100 in the district.

MATHERS POPULAR

As a matter of fact nothing ... be more ridiculous. Mathers carried a majority of the precincts in the district, including ... in Allen-co, Ludwig's home territory.

He carried dry precincts as ... as wet and was the popular ... of the Democratic voters. Fitzgerald has but one trump ... to play in the campaign. ... is dry, he says, and in order ... make the assertion a vote getter his opponent has to be wet. But is he? What does Judge Mathers say.

"I HAVE ALWAYS BEEN DRY. IF ELECTED TO CONGRESS I WILL STAND BY MY RECORD."

Judge Mathers in a letter to the American Issue on Aug. 1st, stated.

"I favor maintaining the percentage of alcoholic content provided in the Volstead law."

What could be more clear? Fitzgerald has said less on the subject. In fact he has made no open declarations, but has depended on others to speak for him.

Fitzgerald won the Republican nomination by posing as bone dry and representing Roland Rodgers, his opponent as wet. Without any proof to support his assertions, he managed to squeeze in and win the nomination.

It appears, however, that the map and letter, intended by Republican bosses to be the culminating shot of the campaign, has turned out a fizzle.

The voters are too wise. They know that Mathers won on merit in the primary and will go across with a whoop in the election.

TONG WAR ENDS

Rival Factions Sign Peace Treaty in New York

NEW YORK—(By Associated Press)—An armistice has been declared in the Tong war and it is expected that a nation-wide peace will be formally declared in Chinatown today.

At a meeting of representatives of the warring On Leong and Hip Sing Tongs here last night, at which the Chinese consul general acted as mediator, a treaty was approved. All that now remains to bring an end to the hostilities which have raged in at least seven great cities of the country and have caused a score of casualties are the signatures of the leaders of the rival tongs.

It was learned for the first time last night that the latest outbreak of the Tong war was the result of a business rivalry between the tongs of 25 years standing. Police learned from members of the tongs that the treaty of peace to be signed today determines the mercantile rights of each side.

LEADERS ASKED FOR ADVICE

President Coolidge Considering Successor to Wallace

WASHINGTON — (By Associated Press) — President Coolidge will seek the views of farm leaders during the next few days before determining upon the selection of a successor to the late Secretary Wallace.

Few political engagements are on the president's list between now and election day, and he has indicated to friends he will take practically no further active part in the campaign, feeling satisfied with the progress made.

Several names already have been subitted to the president for the cabinet vacancy, including Frank O. Lowden, former governor of Illinois; John Lee Coulter, president of North Dakota Agricultural college; Charles March of Litchfield, Minn., and Samuel Adams, former president of the Agricultural Editors' association.

BOMB IN TRAIN KILLS EIGHT

Progressive Farmer is Listed Among Victims

NELSON, B. C. — (By Associated Press) — Peter Veregin, leader of the Doukhobor colony in Saskatchewan, paid for his progressive methods with his life yesterday when an enemy opposed to Veregin's use of modern appliances in farms and homes in the colony placed a bomb under his seat in a Canadian Pacific passenger coach while the train was speeding from Nelson to Grand Forks, B. C., according to the theory advanced today by police investigators. The explosion killed eight and injured twelve passengers on the train.

Railway officials working with police on the case believed the explosion resulted from a time bomb or the jarring of dynamite carried in a gunny sack.

Included in the list of dead was the name of John J. Mackie, member of the British Columbia legislature from Grand Forks.

Veregin came to Canada from exile in Siberia in 1905 to lead the Doukhobor colony in Saskatchewan.

Complexion better than ever before

Embarrassing eruption had resisted many treatments

Milwaukee, Wis., May 12—"A year ago I had a very ugly and embarrassing itching rash on my chin. I tried so many different treatments on it which did little good, that finally I became discouraged. The druggist one day recommended Resinol Soap and I decided to try it and after using it less than one week, the itching and burning ceased. I thought if the soap alone could bring such relief, then the Resinol Ointment must certainly clear away the trouble entirely. After applying it for three nights, you can imagine how delighted I was to find the rash all gone, with not even a trace of redness left. I now keep Resinol Ointment within reach at all times — would not be without it. I find it very economical to use, as a little goes a long way. I have used Resinol Soap daily and will continue to do so. My complexion today is better than ever before, has a healthful glow and, in fact, is all that it ... be—thanks to your wonderful Resinol Soap and Ointment." (Signed) Mrs. J——. Elect Mathers

In choosing a congressman, it is not always that the people of a district have the rare privilege that is afforded the electorate of the Fourth congressional district this year, in Allen, Auglaize, Mercer, Shelby, Miami and Darke [illegible] with the name of Judge Hugh T. Mathers, Sidney, as the Democratic [illegible].

In the very prime of life, a brilliant attorney, a man of exceptional merit, and with a record in public and private life that stands out [illegible], Judge Mathers is offered [illegible] the instrument to bring back to the Fourth district the luster it once enjoyed in the national house of representatives [illegible] leadership of Democratic representatives.

There is perhaps no citizen of the Fourth district who enjoys in a greater degree the confidence of the people generally, of all political beliefs [illegible] of Mathers has long been prominent in Ohio. The Sidney man has time and again demonstrated his great worth and his ability. Progressive, a stickler for the right and with his face always to the sun, it is but natural that Judge Mathers should be a Democrat. He has won the confidence of his fellows. In honoring him with their support in the election next Tuesday, the people will be honoring themselves.

Judge Mathers is not the choice of any political faction or group in his party, and as a member of congress will be the representative of all the people, rather than the mouthpiece of an individual organization. He stands for the enforcement of law, without fear or favor, and can be trusted to strengthen the safeguards of the people. His record is his recommendation. It is deeds, not words that count. His life is an open book of devotion to duty, a reflection of good citizenship.

It is necessary that the next congress be composed of strong men, able men. The Fourth district can make no better contribution than the election of Judge Mathers.

Historical Myths

Our famous cracked Liberty Bell was never rung dramatically to celebrate the signing of the Declaration of Independence, claims Prof Henry J. Ford of Princeton University, writing in American Mercury magazine.

He says the story of the Liberty Bell is a myth, like many another legend of this country's early days such as the yarn about George Washington and the cherry tree.

According to Prof Ford, the Declaration was adopted July 2. Its preamble was adopted July 4. And all without celebrations in Philadelphia or anywhere else. The Declaration, he claims, was not signed until Aug 2, and the signing was not completed until the following Jan 18 in 1777.

He goes on to tell how the "false legend" about the ringing of the Liberty Bell and the great celebration was started 75 years later by George Lippard, a fictional romancer.

No matter how much truth is produced to back up Prof Ford's claims, Americans will continue to believe and revere the Liberty Bell story. And they should.

It is absolutely necessary for a people to have thrilling traditions. The fact that these traditions may be false does no injury, as long as they are harmless.

Thruout history all great races have been spurred on by inspiring legends that had little or no basis in fact. You recall the Norse myth about Valhalla, the hall beyond the grave, where went the souls of heroes who died in battle. These ghostly warriors each morning sallied forth thru Valhalla's 540 gates, to fight and returned at night to feast with the gods. The Valhalla myth was a necessity back yonder when nature was using military organization to teach men how to co-operate in government and in economics.

It is so with other myths.

What would childhood be without a belief in Santa Claus, Jack Frost and the Easter Rabbit? Certainly it would lose much of its glamor and charm.

A race that had no harmless myths would be a race without much tradition, dramatic instinct, imagination or patriotism. Happiness is intangible. The greatest things in life are illusions. We need our myths. Spare them, ye lemon-juice-blooded materialists. If there wasn't a Liberty Bell there should have been. It is a symbol. Wise men know the need and power of symbolism.

Disease Diminishing

Within 50 years, chemists and physicians will have discovered cures for nearly all enemies of the human body, including such dread maladies as cancer. So predicts Dr William S. Nichols, former president of American Chemical Society.

Then no one would die until the body just naturally wore out like an aged machine, barring accidents and such killers as lightning. It is pleasant to contemplate.

Why wait 50 years? The famous Dr Wiley in his eighties, recently said: "If luxury could be destroyed and all houses burned to drive us outdoors, the diseases which kill us old and middle-aged men would disappear."

That's true. Disease as a rule isn't much to fear. The great danger is in a lowering of the body powers of resisting or fighting off disease.

And lowered resistance is an inevitable result of living an unnatural life. Of course, as time goes on, man's body adapts itself to its environment—become immune to conditions and germs that have killed city-dwellers before long environment led to immunization.

The Eskimos are the healthiest people in the world. Bring them down to our cities and they die like flies. It was so with the red Indians—exceedingly healthy until the white man brought his disease.

All this demonstrates that disease is usually an unnatural condition.

Also, that most diseases are created by civilization, and that wherever civilization goes it carries its diseases with it.

Does nature disapprove of civilization, particularly of our congregating densely in cities and try to "get across" to us the news of her disapproval by attacking us with maladies?

I HAVE MY LIFE TO LIVE

"I have my life to live," he said,
"These are my days and weeks and years;
That is my future, just ahead.
Why should I care who grieves or sneers?

"Why should I pause, when pleasure bent,
Because another bids me stay
I have my right to merriment;
Why should I care what others say?

"I do not ask that they incline
Their lives to fit my little plan;
Why should they seek to fashion mine
And hinder me whene'er they can?

Said I: "I hold within my hand
A stone which is my right to throw.
I have the strength to fling it, and
It pleases me to let it go

"It strikes my mother in the face!
It stuns my father standing there!
Would you get up and plead my case
And argue that my deed was fair?

"That life of yours, you proudly boast,
If lived to suit your whims alone,
Will injure those who love you most
Far more than any careless stone.

"When pleasure leads you to disgrace,
And head-long into shame you go,
You strike your mother in the face,
And stun your father with the blow."

Make a Family Supply of Cough Remedy

Really better than ready-made cough syrups, and saves about $2. Easily and quickly prepared.

If you combined the curative properties of every known "ready-made" cough remedy, you probably could not get as much real curative power as there is in this simple home-made cough syrup, which is easily prepared in a few minutes.

Get from any druggist 2½ ounces of Pinex, pour it into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with syrup, using either plain granulated sugar syrup, clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, as desired. The result is a full pint of really better cough syrup than you could buy ready-made for three times the money. Tastes pleasant and never spoils.

This Pinex and Syrup preparation gets right at the cause of a cough and gives almost immediate relief. It loosens the phlegm, stops the nasty throat tickle and heals the sore, irritated membranes so gently and easily that it is really astonishing.

A day's use will usually overcome the ordinary cough and for bronchitis, croup, hoarseness and bronchial asthma, there is nothing better.

Pinex is a most valuable concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, and has been used for generations to break severe coughs.

BLADDER AND KIDNEY TROUBLES

A host of people who suffer with too frequent or painful urination, backaches, headaches, tired feeling, indigestion, insomnia, rheumatic twinges, etc., could be rid of their tortures almost overnight by removing the real cause. For it has long been known that a remarkable oil formula perfected by a famous Holland chemist many years ago goes direct to the kidneys and bladder, and restores them to normal functioning often in 24 hours. The result is that all these symptoms, which are really caused by kidney poisons backing up into the system vanish as if by magic.

Ask for REO MILL Haarlem Oil, which is the genuine oil imported direct from Holland, in tasteless capsules. Costs only 50c, and sold under an absolute money-back guarantee. Ask these druggists: A. T. Baldwin, Fred L. Butler, Hunter's Drug Stores, Argonne Drug Store, M. M. Keltner. adv

A CASE OF HYPERINSULINISM

[illegible] surgeons assert [illegible] of gastric or [illegible] to made, in [illegible] history alone [illegible] by hearing the patient describe the complaint. The typical [illegible] well it certainly is [illegible] that ought not to be [illegible] there but it is so [illegible] must admit the [illegible] are usually right in [illegible]. Once in a while [illegible] meal and [illegible] the [illegible] in time [illegible] about 10 pounds under [illegible] weight had periodic spells [illegible] discomfort for a week or two [illegible] intervals of several months. [illegible] It was [illegible] distress or colicky [illegible] he said he could hardly describe it in words—in the region of his stomach. This distress usually came a few hours after meals, sometimes in the middle of the night. With it there was considerable anxiety and weakness, and he had found that he could obtain relief promptly by taking [illegible] any kind of food, particularly an orange. [illegible] of a friend to whom he mentioned his trouble he consulted a [illegible] who followed the precepts of the British authority and made the diagnosis of duodenal ulcer on the history. [illegible] the surgeon sent the patient to the roentgenologist who made the X-ray pictures and [illegible] about the significance. The surgeon, however, urged immediate operation as the safest and [illegible]. The patient preferred to sleep on the proposition [illegible] and I [illegible] to sleep on it may [illegible] if the trouble had amounted to no more than described.

In [illegible] he returned to his old family doctor. Old but not [illegible] family doctor listened to the history recited by the wayward patient (the jazz age of specialism makes a lot of em wayward) and, not to be outdone by the fast workers, advanced a tentative snap diagnosis of hyperinsulinism. That may sound like insolence but it means oversecretion of insulin by the pancreas. When an excess of that internal secretion is poured or injected into the blood, the amount of sugar in the blood is lowered far below the normal, and the individual suffers certain characteristic effects which are quickly relieved by almost any kind of carbohydrate food, say some orange juice or candy or a sweetened beverage or milk chocolate, or ice cream. The amount of sugar normally present in the blood is remarkably constant even in a fasting individual, and a blood sugar test is readily accurately made by the clinical pathologist today. The normal figure is about one tenth of 1 per cent and anything between 0.09 and 0.12 per cent of glucose (sugar) in the blood is considered within normal bounds.

In this particular case, in the course of a spell of distress the blood sugar was found reduced to 0.068 on one occasion and 0.054 on another.

"Ana," observed Officer Squiller, as we might designate the old F. P., entering a charge of seven fifty for saving the patient from an exploratory operation. He prescribed six small meals daily instead of the usual three full meals, and sic transit gory blunder.

NO MORE CASTOR OIL FOR THE CHILDREN

Give Them Haley's Magnesia-Oil

Mothers, there's an easy way to correct that sour stomach and to relieve the effect of something that has "disagreed" with [illegible] youngsters. Simply give them a teaspoonful or more of Haley's Magnesia-Oil.

It has no oily taste—can be mixed with milk and given children without their knowledge—and is harmless. A big dose [illegible] is perfectly safe and promptly effective. There is no griping or other unpleasant effect. Haley's Magnesia-Oil is simple milk of magnesia and mineral oil combined.

The oil carries the magnesia straight to the lower bowel where most stomach trouble originates. The milk of magnesia neutralizes the acids and the mineral oil lubricates and aids nature quickly to remove the cause of the trouble. Both work together.

If your druggist can't supply Haley's Magnesia-Oil we will mail a bottle postpaid on receipt of price. Trial size 35c, family size $1. The Haley M-O Company, Indianapolis, Ind. adv

COUNTER ATTACK G. O. P. PLAN

Will Loose Fire on Independent Party Leaders

FUND PASSES 3 MILLIONS

Negro Publishers Object to Tactics Used

CHICAGO—(By United Press) A counter fire will be turned loose today by the national Republican committee on the independent party leaders in answer to the "slush fund" charges made by Senator LaFollette.

Wilmouth Kirkland, attorney for the Republicans will be given an opportunity to cross examine Congressman Nelson, chairman of the LaFollette-Wheeler ticket and labor leaders, to show how much money is being spent on behalf of the independent party. Senator Borah, chairman of the G. O. P. campaign fund committee, has issued subpoenas for Warren S. Stone, Cleleviand, and A. F. Sheppard of the railroad brotherhoods, William Johnston, president of the International Machinists' union and organizer of the conference for progressive political action, and for Frank Morrison, secretary of the American Federation of Labor.

Attorney Samuel Untermeyer, of New York, here in behalf of Attorney Frank Walsh, who represents Senator LaFollette, said he would continue his fight to show that the Republicans were spending "vast amounts" of money to swing the presidency.

WILL QUESTION BUTLER

Untermeyer wants to question William M. Butler, chairman of the Republican publicity committee, to show that J. P. Morgan & Co. and other big financial institutions are taking an extraordinary active interest in raising funds for the Republican campaign. While William V. Hodges, treasurer of the Republicans, admitted late yesterday that gross collections up to Tuesday night totalled $3,500,000, Untermeyer holds the total is far above that figure.

Between 65 and 70 organizations working independently of the national committee are raising and spending money, Untermeyer holds.

The short session late yesterday was replete with fireworks. Untermeyer, Hodges and Kirkland squabbled almost incessantly. Hodges and Kirkland told Untermeyer he was simply bluffing when he said he would prove the existence of a 'slush fund." Acrimonious words flew about, concluding with a flurry at the end of the session when Hodges arose, defending his position as attorney for the Holly Sugar Corporation, and shaking a finger at Untermeyer, cried:

"My professional standing is on a higher standard than yours, and if it is not, I'll eat may hat."

"Well, go and eat it," retorted Untermeyer.

NEGRO PUBLISHER TESTIFIES

At the hearings Wednesday afternoon, William Griffin of New York, vice president of the American Press association, was called to the stand and testified he had endeavored without success to sell the Republican national committee a $200,000 advertising campaign to be conducted in the doubtful western states.

Another firm got the contract with the committee. The only political advertising handled by his firm, Griffith said, was one sixty inch advertisement placed in 369 papers in Illinois. The Republican control committee of Illinios, paid $5,000 for the advertisement. Carl Murphy, negro, editor of the Afro-American, published in Baltimore, Md., said he wrote President Coolidge asking him for a statement of his stand on the Ku Klux Klan.

"Mr. Slemp replied that he would call my letter to the president's attention," said Murphy.

Murphy testified he was invited by George H. Harris, director of the colored press of the eastern Republican headquarters to attend a banquet of negro editors in New York early in September. He went to New York with his advertising manager and while there he was told that after he pledged himself to the Coolidge-Dawes ticket the Republican committee would "talk about advertising in my paper."

"When they told us that, we left," said Murphy.

OBJECTS TO LANGUAGE

The witness said that the editor of the Atlanta Independent Negro paper, "objected to the language used."

"He said he did not think it was decent to couple advertising with a pledge to support Coolidge and Dawes," said Murphy.

Murphy added that the editor of the Chicago Defender, a negro paper, told him that he was given $10,000 by the Republican organization.

"Whom are you supporting?" asked William L. Bourland, attorney for the Republican national committee.

"We are supporting LaFollette."

"Do you expect to live long enough to see President Coolidge tell his views on the klan?" asked Caraway.

"It won't matter after November 4," replied Murphy.

WORKERS INSANE

Mysterious Gas Affects 35 Out of 45 Employes

NEW YORK—(By Associated Press)—Only ten of the 45 workers in the research laboratory at the Bayway plant of the Standard Oil Co. have failed to show symptoms of loss of reason to date, it was learned today. Eleven more sufferers from the mysterious gas that has caused four deaths and has robbed a score of others of their sanity, were brought to reconstruction hospital here yesterday, brining the total number of victims under treatment to 31.

Announcement by doctors at the hospital that an antidote had been discovered for the gas, brought hope to the families of the sufferers, whose alarm earlier in the day had been heightened by the death of William Kresge, 28. Dr. Maximin Touart was given credit for te discovery which was said to involve the injection of hypo-sulphite of soda into the veins of the sufferers.

That the federal government will take a hand in the investigation was revealed by an announcement that experts of the bureau of mines will arrive this morning to study the nature of the gas.

MAYOR IS FIRM

Klan Parade Permitted in Face of Outbreak

NILES, Ohio — (By United Press)—Mayor H. O. Kistler stood pat today on his decision to permit a Ku Klux Klan parade here Saturday.

In the face of demands by business men that the program be cancelled in the interests of peace, Mayor Kistler said the parade will go on as scheduled.

Meanwhile local and state officials were conducting two separate investigations of the bombing of the mayor's home early yesterday following an unsuccessful effort to harmonize Klan and anti-Klan factions disputing over the Klan's rights to the city streets.

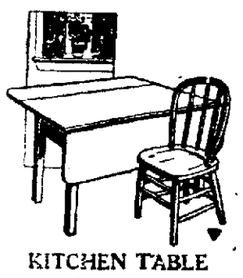

Police protection Saturday, when the Klan and the Knights of the Flaming Circle both try to hold demonstrations at the same time, will be in the hands of the county sheriff, who declares he will not ask for state troops unless actual fighting breaks out between the two groups.

ITALIANS ARRESTED

TOLEDO — Seven Italians arrested here for United States marshals on orders of the internal revenue collector charged with failure to pay income tax since 1919 and with holding up work in the revenue department here. It is also alleged the men threatened government collectors.

GREENBACKS UNSEASONED

Government Trying to Make "Cartwheels" More Popular

WASHINGTON — (By United Press) — As a [illegible] economy, Secretary [illegible] W. Mellon has called upon [illegible] banks of the country [illegible] the public to restore [illegible] silver dollar [illegible] circulation.

The decline [illegible] silver dollars [illegible] 1919 to [illegible] 1924, was the result [illegible] man act [illegible] thorized the [illegible] silver dollars [illegible] the British [illegible] currency [illegible].

The treasury [illegible] ordered to [illegible] dollar to its former [illegible] circulation, but the public [illegible] year [illegible] sume the [illegible] trousers pocket [illegible] "cart wheels" [illegible] the dollar [illegible] them.

LONG LIFE

"The life of a silver dollar," Mellon points out, "is [illegible] able limit whereas [illegible] paper dollar does not at most exceed ten months. A paper dollar costs .017 cents to manufacture and keep in circulation. If the treasury can restore to circulation 30,000,000 silver dollars in the United States and 10,000,000 in our insular possession we can displace equal amount of paper currency and save annually $525,000 which is equivalent to the interest at 4 per cent on 12,000,000 of the public debt."

The demand for paper currency in small denomination has increased tremendously in the past three years. It is now necessary to print and put in circulation 48,000,000 one dollar notes alone each month.

The speed with which these bills are rushed thru the manufacturing process does not give the treasury time to "season" them and as a result Mellon says they become unfit for circulation within seven or eight months whereas notes that have been "seasoned" last from ten to eleven months.

MANY COMPLAINTS

"Bankers thruout the country are constantly complaining of the poor quality of the paper money and while the treasury is aware of the situation and doing all in its power to rectify it we must ask co-operation of the public and the bankers to rectify it," Mellon says.

"Obviously we must build up a reserve supply of currency sufficiently large in amount to keep a portion of it in process of seasoning. That is what the treasury intends to do. It will be necessary to obtain from Congress an additional appropriation with which to build up an adequate reserve stock but in the end such a program will result in increased saving to the taxpayers. If the life of a dollar note can be prolonged two months, so that it remains in circulation ten months instead of eight a yearly saving of $1,666,000 will be effected in this denomination alone.

To facilitate the building up of a currency reserve Mellon asks that silver dollars be used more generally. If a demand for the large coin is created the treasury will immediately be able to pile up a reserve of paper dollars and give them opportunity to season.

MICE CAUSE PANIC

The mice sunk their teeth into the shoestrings of two women passengers. The women in a panic jumped out of their compartment and onto the ground just before the speeding train came to a steel bridge.

GERMAN TARIFF IS PREPARED

May Transform Economic Situation in Europe

PROTECTION TO BE POLICY

England Might Be Shut Out of Market

BERLIN — (By United Press) — A new tariff which Germany [illegible] is likely to lead to important consequences which [illegible] might transform the whole economic structure of Europe.

Germany made her last tariff in 1902, but in the meantime it has been changed in many respects. On the one hand the tariff for agrarian products has been [illegible] since the war, while for [illegible] industrial goods it has [illegible] considerably.

In preparation for the new tariff [illegible] to re-establishment of protection for the agrarian products and to erection of a tariff wall for industrial goods.

Besides this new tariff, Germany has to conclude new commercial treaties with all the signatory powers of the Versailles Treaty, which document granted the Allies the rights of "the most favored nation" for a period of five years.

It was obvious from the start that the new German tariff would play the chief part in these negotiations and the difficulties which have arisen in these negotiations are due to the fact that Germany is trying to protect her industries to a degree which makes it impossible for other nations to sell anything to Germany.

GERMANY HAS THE TRUMPS

Germany's position as far as England, France and Belgium are concerned is better than that of these states. Being their largest customer Germany has all the trumps and the only possibility of counter action by these powers is the duty imposed by the Recovery Act.

England being practically a free trade country has no advantage in being treated as a "most favored nation." If a high tariff prevents her from selling. She has therefore a need for guarantees that the new German tariff should not be raised correspondingly higher than to allow for the general increase in prices of raw materials thruout the world. This would mean that the duty for certain goods should not be raised above the present level while for others it would have to be reduced.

England is therefore not interested in granting Germany any trade facilities unless she gets guarantees that the new German tariff will do away with the excessive protection. Germany on the other hand feels she can hardly make any binding promises which would deprive her of her liberty of action in dealing with other powers.

The consideration is cleverly used by the people who really pull the strings in Germany—the industrial [illegible] to induce the government to play into their hands. [illegible] less binding agreements Germany has made with other powers the more she is at liberty to [illegible] a settlement with France [illegible] powers [illegible].

France like England is in a bad position as far as commercial treaty with Germany is concerned. Since the United States were dry and since Russia collapsed Germany is the only important purchaser of French wines. She is also an important buyer of French luxury goods and last but not least, the German market is simply vital for the products of Alsace Lorraine. The latter could be imported into Germany free of duty the last five years under the Versailles Treaty and the French want a [illegible] of this privilege.

On the other hand German export to France is minimum. In the first seven months of this year it amounted only to 1,100,000,000 francs, but after deducting the coal and other reparation deliveries it represented only about $10,000,000. Nevertheless an agreement is most likely to be reached.

ORE AND COAL UNION

But the leading industrial circles in Germany as well as in France are eager to secure an arrangement which would realize the long aimed at union between Lorraine ore and Ruhr coal. This union would give to its members the supremacy in Europe, at least as far as economic life is concerned.

While it would endanger the American iron and steel industries it would be a death blow for the corresponding British manufacturers. In the end this situation might induce England to turn to protection.

The political consequences of a close union between the leading industries of Germany and France are likely to be even more important. It is obvious that in case of such a union, the still prevailing antagonism between these countries would sooner or later come to an end. It would automatically change the policy of England, which would be forced to look for a new alignment of allies to be protected against the Franco-German block.

An interesting question will be whether the French or the German partner will prove the stronger. So far the German industrialists seem to have the upper hand, as far as their own government is concerned.

BLACKMAIL ATTEMPT FAILS AS YOUTH IS ARRESTED BY POLICE

BOSTON — An attempt to blackmail Henry G. Lapham, financier, has resulted in the arrest of Salvatore Schiazone, 19 years old. The youth was trapped yesterday when accepting from a messenger a package containing marked bills in place of the $5,000 which had been demanded under threat of death.

Lapham a year ago gave a $350,000 club house to Yale university. The youth told the police, they say, that he got the idea of demanding money when he read about the gift.

ERROR DISCOVERED IN PRESIDENTIAL BALLOTS

CHICAGO — An error in the Illinois official ballot which has Albert H. Swearingham instead of Albert H. Severinghaus as a Coolidge elector, has caused concern among Republican managers here.

Since it is too late to change the name on the official ballots some managers believe that [illegible] if Coolidge carried Illinois, Severinghaus would be barred from voting for him. Others consider that in the event of a close race in the electoral college there would be no question about his vote being finally recorded.

What tribunal would decide whthr Sv-f whether Severinghaus could vote as Wwearingham is also debated. The ballot is three feet long, two and a half wide. It carries eleven columns for as many political party tickets.

for Governor

"Campaign promises are as solemnly binding as if made under oath."
—HARRY L. DAVIS

An Open Letter to the Public—

To the Citizens of Ohio:

It has been my privilege in this campaign now closing to stand before many of you and talk to you about my candidacy for the high office of Governor of Ohio. The limitations of time make it impossible, however, to meet, as I should like, every man and woman in the state.

My first concern is that you cast your vote for President Coolidge who by his sterling character and good judgment has shown himself not only a party leader but every inch a President. Also that you support President Coolidge with a Republican Congress, so that there will be party accord in national affairs. This you can do only by your ballot.

Our Republican State Ticket should likewise be given your vote—so that there may be no doubt about the election of every candidate; and with these officials we should by all means elect a complete Republican State Legislature.

In every address I have asked Governor Donahey certain clear-cut and definite questions. A few of these questions have been passed to his department heads, resulting only in evasive and indirect replies. I stand ready and have challenged him to compare his record as governor with mine. He has refused.

My own record is before you. On it, I have no hesitancy to ask your support. To be elected Governor again, I must depend altogether on those who have the best interests of the people at heart; to the people, I must look for assistance in the fight I am making.

Every one of the campaign promises four years ago was fully performed. I am before you again, pledging once more to serve your interests with all my power and energy; to relieve the farmer and other abutting property owners of heavy assessments for road construction—to resume our program of constructing more permanent roads at less cost than now—strictly again to enforce all laws of Ohio—to re-establish firmly the great cash balance of $20,500,000 our administration built up—to keep abolished the $12,000,000 state tax levy wiped out as a direct result—and in all respects, to carry into full force and effect the 1924 Republican state platform.

To aid in accomplishing this, I again appeal to you for the election of all Republican State Candidates and a Republican Legislature.

Sincerely,

Harry L. Davis

"America" at Lyric

D. W. Griffith's "America" was flashed across the Lyric screen for the initial times Wednesday and proved all and even more than advance reports had claimed it to be. It is not only a big film but exciting picture and master-piece.

The major battles of the American Revolution from "the shot that was heard 'round the world," Lexington Green to the engagement which culminated in the surrender of Cornwallis are shown in this extraordinary photoplay, and its dramatic episodes from Paul Revere's ride to the signing of the Declaration of Independence lend their inspiring atmosphere.

The lovely but subservient romance tells the story of Nathan Holden, Massachusetts patriot, poet and farmer, who meets and falls in love with Nancy Montague daughter of an aristocrat. Her Tory father discourages the romance, but it continues thruout the events of the war and ends happily at the inauguration of George Washington after the war had been terminated.

Neil Hamilton had his first big-starring role in "America" and as young Holden, makes the best of the opportunity. Carol Dempster plays opposite him. Lionel Barrymore is a very satisfactory villain. Other principals in the cast are Charles Mack, Harry O'Neill, Lee Alderson and John Dutton. It is said that Griffith's idea in producing "America" was not so much to tell a romance or story, but to suggest the spirit of sacrifice made by our forefathers that America might become a free and independent nation.

Mack's Serenaders

Red Mack and his serenaders will be the featured attraction at the New Orpheum theatre for the week beginning Sunday matinee. Popular royalty plays are offered this company and between the acts "serenaders" of 10 good looking girls and novelty vaudeville will be presented.

The first offering will be "The Moon Girl" and is said to be a great entertaining comedy drama and because of the unusual type of program, seldom seen in cities the size of Lima, will prove a distinct novelty.

The "Marcus Show of 1925" is the featured attraction for the balance of this week beginning Thursday matinee.

Morgan Ill

Rhys Morgan, famous Welsh tenor who was booked to sing at the Faurot Opera House Wednesday night, was forced to cancel his engagement because of a heavy cold. An attempt will be made to book him here at a later date, it was said.

Barbara Bronell

Barbara Bonell, dainty dancer and singer who will appear at the Faurot Opera House Saturday and Sunday, both matinee and night in "My China Doll," is well liked in Lima. She has an especially pleasing personality and her ernest efforts to please has made her one of the favorites.

"My China Doll" is a pleasing offering of the popular variety that will please all theatregoers. Indications are that it will be very well received here.

U. S. Pays Heavy Price In Arms Meet, Says Mayo

CHICAGO — (By Associated Press) — The United States paid an enormous price to bring the Washington disarmament conference to a successful conclusion, said Rear Admiral H. T. Mayo, retired, in an address prepared for delivery before the Chicago Association of Commerce.

"We surrendered command of the Western Pacific to Japan, who is now in absolute military command in those waters, able to take possession of Guam where we undoubtedly should have a strong naval base, and the Philippine islands whenever such action seems advisable," he said.

"Friendship between nations is governed by self-interest. Jealousy of our wealth and prosperity is the prevailing feeling of other nations toward us. Most of them owe us money and would be very glad to concoct some scheme whereby their debt to us might be cancelled or repudiated."

SON OF HOTEL OWNER FACES INTOXICATION CHARGE IN SYRACUSE

SYRACUSE, N Y — Twenty witnesses are to be called on behalf of Milton Statler, adopted son of E M. Statler, millionaire hotel owner, whose trial on a charge of being intoxicated while driving an automobile, began yesterday.

The youth was arrested after an accident in which the car he was driving crashed into one driven by Eben Chappell of this city. Members of the Chappell party and two policemen who arrested Statler, testified yesterday that the boy bore every evidence of being intoxicated.

Dr J Victor Haberman, New York City nerve specialist, a witness for the defense, declared however that the boy's condition might have been due to a nerve disorder similar to St Vitus dance. Four years ago he started treating the youth for this trouble, the doctor declared and the excitemetn of the accident, he believed, probably caused it to recur in a serious form.

PARENT HOME SCENE OF WEDDING

The marriage of [illegible] Parent, [illegible] and Mrs. William [illegible] 875 W. Market-st. to Dr. W[illegible] Wesley Wilkerson [illegible] Tenn. was [illegible] morning at [illegible] Rev. W. H. Howard, pastor [illegible] Brethren [illegible] presence [illegible]

[illegible] William [illegible] All Our World [illegible] pointed hour [illegible] presid[illegible] Mende's [illegible] the bridal [illegible]

First came [illegible] Parent and Jane Parent [illegible] Dr. and Mrs. [illegible] opened the [illegible] golden [illegible] leading into the [illegible] where an altar of [illegible] and golden [illegible] been arranged. [illegible] in brass candelabra [illegible] either side [illegible] Alice Louise Parent and [illegible] Parent, children of Dr. and Mrs. Virgil Parent came next, a flower boy and girl and then [illegible] old Billy Parent bearing the emerald wedding ring in a small [illegible] er.

The bride descended the stair on the arm of her father, who gave her in marriage. They were met by the bridegroom and his attendants, Stanley [illegible] Miss Ruth Hamilton, intimate friend of the bride was maid of honor.

The bride was lovely in a creation of white satin, heavily beaded in crystal and white beads with white satin slippers. Her flowing tulle veil was held in place with band and wristlets of orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses and lilies of the valley. A few sunburst roses added color to the attractive bouquet.

Miss Hamilton wore a gown of bridal [illegible] and [illegible] bouquet was of orchids and sunburst roses.

A wedding breakfast for the bridal party and immediate families of the couple followed at the Elk's Home. The effective color scheme of green and gold was carried out. Centering the table was a mound of yellow button crysanthemums and the appointments were in yellow and green.

Dr. Wilkerson and his bride left immediately by motor for a trip thru the south and will be at home after November 11, at 2113 Fifteenth-av., S. W., Nashville.

The bride's going away costume was a gown of brown bengeline trimmed in leopard with a small brown hat. She wore a mink wrap.

Mrs. Wilkerson, upon completing her high school course here, entered Western college for women at Oxford, where she received her Bachelor of Arts degree. She later went to New York for training in the Bellevue hospital and received an R. N. degree. The bride is unusually talented and is popular among the younger social set of Lima.

Dr. Wilkerson, son of Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Wilkerson, Nashville, received his medical degree at Vanderbilt university and is now practicing in Nashville, where the couple will make their home.

SUSIE SMART'S ADVICE

Dear Miss Smart:

Is it necessary to be a High school graduate to attend Ohio Northern university? I believe they do not. I have a friend who [illegible] that it isn't necessary. [illegible] Is the [illegible] It was? [illegible] am going [illegible] much [illegible] agree w[illegible]

My girl friends [illegible] because I don't [illegible] dances. They go without an [illegible] and get dates after [illegible] them it is not the thing [illegible] they can [illegible] you think it all right [illegible] lic dance when you have an [illegible] you don't go to [illegible]

MISS CRANK.

Ohio Northern University has a preparatory school in connection with the institution and altho it is not necessary to be a graduate to enter this, it is necessary to have a complete high school course to enter the University. In the preparatory school are offered courses for students who do not care to finish in their local high school and do want to complete their work in order to enter the University. The classes are conducted in the same buildings and undoubtedly you have received the wrong impression because of this.

You are perfectly right in saying that the girls should not attend public dances, and especially without an escort. If the young men care for their company they would call them and ask them to accompany them to the dance. If these young men were going to some private affair they would not think of asking a girl, who goes to public places and "picks up dates." Men expect most anything from these girls and I can assure you they have no respect for them.

If your parents do not object I believe that you could go to some public dance with an escort for two or three dances. I certainly do not approve of spending the entire evening in such an environment, nor do I think you should make a practice of attending these af affairs even in company with a young man.

Shingle bob seems to be just as popular as ever and I feel confident that it will be worn all winter.

MOSES CLEVELAND, 102, CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY

CLEVELAND — Moses Cleveland, cousin of Cleveland's founder, celebrated his 102nd birthday today. His hip broken, he spent the day abed.

"The best way to live is to take life as calmly as possible," he sair. "Had I been a little more clam about getting out of my chair a month ago, I would not be in bed.

"One of the things I have learned in the last 100 years is that people as a whole are always holding back, looking back and will not progress any sooner than they have to."

Cleveland said he has over 100 grand children, 16 of whom are great-greats.

CONFESSED MURDERER IN PRISON WITH HIGH FEVER

CLEVELAND — Arraignment of Joe Prymas and Albert Holt, indicted on charges of first degree murder in connection with the slaying of Patrolman Michael Hahnel was set for today, but it was doubtful early this morning whether Prymas would be in condition to be taken to court.

Prymas, in a prison ward at city hospital, was unable to be removed to county jail last night, because of a high fever. Physicians advised that he be allowed to remain in the hospital.

Indications are that the court will be called upon to provide counsel for both men. Neither are believed to have relatives who are in a position to finance their defense.

Says His Perscription Has Powerful Influence Over Rheumatism

Mr. James H. Allen, of 26 Forbes St., Rochester, N. Y., suffered for years with rheumatism. Many times this terrible disease left him helpless and unable to work.

He finally decided, after years of ceaseless study, that no one can be free from rheumatism until the accumulated impurities, commonly called uric acid deposits, were dissolved in the joints and muscles and expelled from the body.

With this idea in mind he consulted physicians, made experiments and finally compounded a prescription that quickly and completely banished every sign and symptom of rheumatism from his system.

He freely gave his discovery, which he called Allenrhu, to others who took it, with what might be called marvelous success. After years of urging he decided to let sufferers everywhere know about his discovery through the newspapers. He has therefore instructed druggists everywhere to dispense Allenrhu with the understanding that if the first pint bottle does not show the way to complete recovery he will gladly return your money without comment.

The Affair at Flower Acres

by CARLYN WELLS

© 1924 by NEA Service Inc.

BEGIN HERE TODAY

Douglas Raynor is found shot thru the heart in the early evening on the floor of the sun room of Flower Acres his Long Island home. Standing over the dead man, pistol in hand, is Malcolm Finley, former sweetheart of Mrs. Raynor's wife, Nancy. Eva Turner, Raynor's nurse, stands by the door. Right in a moment Nancy's light switch is turned on and she appears, white-faced and terrified. Orville Kent, Nancy's brother, comes in from the south side of the room. And then Ezra Goddard, friend of Raynor, and others, enter upon the scene. Mrs. Mattie Dobbins heads the police detective Dobbins. Lionel Raynor, son of Douglas Raynor by first marriage, comes to claim his father's estate. Nancy accuses Grimshaw Gannon, a hired man, of witnessing another will her husband made out in her favor.

"Well, don't ever do it again!" Nan frowned at him severely. "I refuse to submit to your blackmailing scheme—for that is what it is. But I shall repeat your conversation to the detective, and he will make further inquiries. I know, Grimshawe Gannon, I know, that you witnessed that will and that you know where it is. And you'll be made to give it up! Here comes Mr. Dobbins now!"

Sure enough, the detective was coming toward them, evidently in search of Mrs. Raynor.

"I give this man over to you, Mr. Dobbins," she said, excitedly. "He witnessed the will my husband made in my favor, and he has it now—concealed somewhere. He stole it—I don't know why—but I want you to find out all about it."

"Now, now, Mr. Detective," the old man said, "this lady's all stirred up over nothin'— I don't know a thing about what she's speakin' of."

"I'll be settled that will business to my own satisfaction," said Dobbins sternly. "I believe, Mrs. Raynor, that the day your husband was killed you had a very unusually severe quarrel, had you not?"

"Not a quarrel, Mr. Dobbins, but my husband had been unusually angry at me."

But on that day he was so angry that he threatened to destroy the will he made in your favor."

"How did you know that?" and Nan looked truly astounded.

"Ah, you thought your little tiffs were not overheard, did you? But Miss Raynor happened to be passing your door—and as you had both raised your voices—or at any rate, Mr. Raynor had—she heard him say—"

"Passing the door! She was eavesdropping, as usual. Very well, he did say that."

"And—you thought that the crisis had come, and so, Mrs. Raynor, that afternoon you shot him so that he couldn't destroy that will. But—he had already done so!"

"How do you know?"

"Because it cannot be found. And who else would make away with it? Surely you wouldn't—nor his sister—nor could any one want that will destroyed.

"Except Lionel Raynor—" Nan began.

"He wasn't here," said Dobbins, sternly. "You can't drag him in. The case is clear. You feared the destruction of that will, you had become newly interested in your returned suitor, you had reached the point of desperation with your husband's cruelty—you concluded to end it all. The pistol, your husband's own, was convenient in the drawer of the table. If any one else had left the tea table and gone to dress for dinner. Perhaps acting impulsively, because of such a good chance, you stepped into the sun parlor, shot your victim, dropped the weapon and came out again just as Mr. Finley was arriving at once from the city. He saw your disappearing figure hurrying thru the door opposite. Miss Turner, snapping on the lights, also saw you going out, and a few moments later, Mr. Kent coming on the scene, saw nothing—but apparently appears for the first time upon the scene. It's all explained, Mrs. Raynor—I'm telling you what I know in order to prepare you for the ordeal you must face."

"Good Lord, man," cried old Grimshawe, "the lady's fainting. How could you blurt out all that! Get out of my way!"

And fairly brushing the detective aside, the great, gaunt man caught the drooping figure before it fell and carried Nan swiftly into the house and placed her on a couch in the living room.

"Look after her!" he said curtly to Miss Raynor, who bustled in, and then Gannon strode into the room where the men now were.

"I want to check up that Dobbins person," he said; "he's a bone, and if Mrs. Raynor is innocent, that's no reason she should be persecuted by him."

"I wonder the lady fainted," said Kent; no wonder she is ill and terribly upset. She is a drug addict!" shouted Kent, jumping and glaring at Dobbins.

"I've proof right here," Dobbins produced a damp looking paper parcel. "Mrs. Raynor accompanied by the little Fay girl went down to the brook—below the Falls road, and she threw this package into the falls. I waded in and fished it out—and here it is."

He opened the parcel and found four vials, two empty; one and one partly full of a white powder. And all were labeled morphine.

"What have you to say?" demanded Dobbins.

But no one had anything to say.

CHAPTER X

Dolly Fay

"I see," Dobbins said, "it explains a good deal to know that Mrs. Raynor was a victim of the drug habit. Why, it may go far to account for letting her off easy—"

"It does do nothing of the sort!" Malcolm Finley exploded. "How dare you accuse Mrs. Raynor of—"

"I don't blame you for getting mad, Mr. Finley," Dobbins said looking at him benignly, "and I'm mighty sorry myself to say anything against the lady, but here's the proof—"

"Proof nothing! You pick up a measly parcel of rubbish and you jump at a conclusion! Has any one ever seen Mrs. Raynor ever so slightly under the influence of a drug?"

"Never!" said Orville Kent.

"Where's that nurse person?" asked Dobbins suddenly. "She'd know about Mrs. Raynor's habits."

"She's gone," Kent informed him. "Went off last night, bag and baggage. And, by the way, she took with her a nifty bunch of stocks and bonds."

"Raynor's?" asked the detective.

"Well, they had been—but they were all transferred to her, and were in a big packet, marked with her name, in the safe. Of course, I gave them to her as she asked."

"Queer doings," muttered Dobbins. "Why should Raynor give them to her? Was he sweet on her?"

"Not a bit of it!" Kent said; "Douglas wasn't that sort—and, too, I think he positively disliked Miss Turner.. But he was trying her out as a diet nurse. He was a faddist about his food."

"SHE'S GONE," KENT INFORMED HIM.

"How'd she come to go off in such hurry?" asked Dobbins, looking amazed. "We hadn't finished questioning her. Where is she?"

"She left a New York address, which she said would always reach her. But you don't suspect she had anything to do with the shooting, do you?"

"Why, look here," Dobbins said "There are three—no, four doors to that room where Mr. Raynor was killed. Now, there is a possibility that the criminal was at any one of the four. If east or west, it must have been Mrs. Raynor or Mr. Finley. If south, it was an outsider, who got away. Kent, before you came on the scene. But, there's the north door, at which was Miss Turner, and later, Miss Raynor We can't suspect Miss Raynor of her brother's death, but I've always rather had my mind on Miss Turner. I don't at all like the idea of her going away."

"She never shot Raynor," said Ezra Goddard. "Why in the world would she? Especially if he was kind enough to give her a bundle of valuable securities."

"She didn't shoot him to get those," Kent added, "for they were all properly endorsed over to her, and the parcel, all ready for her, was in the safe with her name on it."

"Maybe he was holding out on her for some reason," mused the detective. "There must have been some secret alliance or some important interest between the two for a man like Raynor to give a transient nurse such a gift."

"We don't know that it was a gift," Kent said; perhaps it represented her accumulation of savings which Raynor had invested for her."

"I never saw a case with so many angles to it," Dobbins sighed. "Here's Lionel Raynor impatient to take possession of his inheritance and, as nobody can find a later will, he'll have to have it, for all I can see, and what is Mrs. Raynor going to do for a home? Not only that, but she'll be arrested soon now, unless something turns up in some other direction."

"No!" Orville Kent gave a start. "You won't arrest my sister! Why, man, you haven't a shred of real evidence!"

"Oh, haven't we? I hate to do it, Mr. Kent, but justice demands action—and I haven't any idea any jury would ever convict her—"

"But arrested! Nan! In jail! Never—"

"I wish we could hear of some outsider," Dobbins said; "if now, Mr. Kent, as you came up the hill you had seen any one skulking off—"

"I didn't," Kent said, tersely; "I wish to goodness I had—but I can't invent a person! Yet there may have been one—"

"No use discussing imaginary criminals," Dobbins said, briskly, we've quite enough real suspects."

"Suppose I confess to the shooting," began Malcolm Finley, and Dobbins quickly turned to him.

"Do'" he cried. "that's what I've been waiting for! You confess to shield Mrs. Raynor—and then she'll confess to shield you—"

"Oho," Geddard said. "that's fine! If they each confess to shield the other, that lets them both out!"

An Intimate Story of Innermost Emotions Revealed in Private Letters

With Jack and Karl came dad's lawyer, and we all assembled in the library to hear the will read. At this time Alice made her first appearance among us since we had returned from the funeral. Poor child, she looked as tho she had had a serious illness, and I felt so sorry for her that I went up and put my arms around her.

I haven't told you, Ruth, that we had quite a disturbance when Karl and Alice first arrived, and Jack told her that father had made him his executuor and manager of the plant. Of course, after everything else the quarrel got back to the pearls, and I gave them beak to her and told Karl, before Jack and Alice, that I could not keep my promise to him; that I had never been happy with them, and I could never again wear them, knowing how Alice felt about them.

So you see I have gotten rid of at least one thing that might bring me discord and unhappiness, but I'm somewhat afraid that I've only passed them with all their dire import over to Alice and Karl; for Karl reproved Alice before us all, and it nearly broke her heart.

She was very subdued thru the long legal announcements made by the lawyer in reading the will. It was exactly as Jack had told us, except that it was couched in legal phrases. Dad gave to mother for life the income from his entire real estate; and a third of the income from his personal property and investments as long as she should live. The income from the other two-thirds is to be divided equally between Alice, myself, and little John, and John is made executor without bond.

Both of us started when this item was read, and Jack turned pale, for dad had not told him that part of his bequest. I thought at first Alice was going to remonstrate, but Karl put his hand gently over hers and she was silent.

At the death of mother, her share is to be divided equally between Alice and me.

It's a strange thing, Ruth dear, how destiny has worked out the fate of little Jack. I am exceedingly glad that my father loved the boy well enough to insure his education and start in life, whatever any one else might do for him. Each day, now, as I know that another child is coming to me, my love grows greater for the boy I chose. I love him for my husband's sake; I love him in spite of my husband's sin. I love him because I chose him out of the world of little homeless and motherless ones, and I think I can say that that is as great a love as a mother has even for a child that is hers because she bore it

Oh, I know a great many people will think I am crazy to say this, but nevertheless each day I find that it is true in my case I am eagerly waiting until my other child is born to see if nature will make any difference between the child of my body and the child of my choice.

There is much more I want to tell you, Ruth. There is much to be settled, of course, about the shop and other things. However, I will not come back with John immediately, as I hate to leave mother here alone. Alice at this time seems too much absorbed in her own unhappiness and sorrow to be of much comfort to her. However, I am going to have a talk with Jack before he returns, and then I will write you Until then, remember dear, you are my best friend,

HUSBAND SAID WHY NOT TRY IT

Wife Said She Would. Result, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Made Her Well and Strong

East Hardwick, Vermont.—"Last winter I was not able to do any work at all. I had backache, headache, sideache, and was sick all the time for six months. We read about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in the newspapers, and my husband said to me, 'Why don't you try it?' So I said I would, and he went and got me a dozen bottles. It has done me more good than I can ever tell, and my friends say, 'What have you done to yourself? You look so well.' I tell them it is the Vegetable Compound that makes me so well and strong. There is no use to suffer with backache and pains. I will tell every one what it has done for me."—Mrs. FRED. PRIMO, Route No. 2, E. Hardwick, Vermont.

SUSNELL VERY UNFAIR BOXER; FOULS ROBERTS TWICE

INDIANAPOLIS BOY IS FAST AND CLEVER

Reamer Roberts was awarded his bout against Frank Susnell thru fouls. He would have easily won over any other route. [illegible] when a foul blow delivered to an opponent is done accidentally and excusable from that standpoint. Susnell delivered three foul blows. One in the first round [illegible] and 27 seconds of fighting [illegible] round. The [illegible] one in this round was [illegible] above the hip [illegible] Roberts [illegible] little [illegible] to the mat [illegible]

[illegible]

[illegible] ten seconds of boxing that he [illegible] also cheering [illegible] Roberts and that because of a foul. To [illegible] banked with Joe Lynch, exchange it would not do to go down to defeat, so he took this unsportsman like means of getting the most out of a bad job.

Match Roberts with some clever bantam and there is no hall in Lima large enough to hold the crowd, was expressed by many sportsmen present at the ringside.

PENCE-KOONS BOUT

But while the audience got but a peep in on the feature bout of the evening, they did get a fast run and more blood than they bargained for. Pence proved a surprise to his followers here, thru his wonderful gameness and his terrific slugging ability over Koons. The Mansfield boy is one of those slow going boxers fighter is a mere lit expression who could never expect to get anywhere were it not for his tremendous ability to take punishment. While Pence hit him repeatedly with tremendous rights and lefts, winning every round by a wide margin, except the first and fourth, he was unable to make a dint on the "hickory block." What became somewhat repulsive to many spectators, was the large amount of blood spilt by Pence, from a split eye. Early in the bout Koons hit Pence a hard one on the eye, which ruptured it but did not break the skin. It became swelled and puffed from internal bleeding. In a later round Koons opened it and the result was considerably like a young slaughter house. But the split ear had no effect on the fighting propensities of the Lima boy. He is certainly a better boxer than his opponent, demonstrated the fact time and time again; fought him every round to the extent of his ability, [illegible] blows repeatedly and received a good many in return. He [illegible] faster than Koons that were it not for the latter's toughness he certainly would have gone down.

So while the judges decided the bout a draw, they were right from the standpoint that Koons was not beaten, for he was [illegible] harder than ever at the last round which was a wild and furious one. But it from the [illegible] decision point then Pence won the bout from every angle and [illegible] for one.

THE CURTAIN RAISER

In the curtain raiser between "Young Kemple," of Lima, and "Red" Gorman of Findlay, the latter was overweighed a [illegible] and miles. It would be well to keep such alleged boxers out of the ring. Gorman [illegible] common to [illegible] called a boxer. He could not even defend himself or fight his opponent. Kemple might show to better advantage if he had [illegible] worthy foe in front of him.

SCOTT-MARTIN BOUT

The second bout [illegible] Scott, of Fort Wayne, and [illegible] Martin, of Indianapolis, was [illegible] piece de resistance of the evening. Scott [illegible] boxing game [illegible] a monkey of [illegible] to be one of the [illegible] spectators that ever [illegible] to his name. [illegible] max as he sat on [illegible] ing [illegible] Maxwell as he counted [illegible] There was a thank you [illegible] as he left the ring.

But Reamer Roberts [illegible] more of him. Match him with [illegible] first rank boy and it is certain that there would be thousands present to see him. And Susnell? Scratch him off the slate. It is such boxers that help give boxing a black eye and cauliflower ears.

Ohio State Is No Longer Soft Picking

BY BILLY EVANS

Ohio State is back among the elect in "Big Ten" football circles.

After being kicked around for a couple of years, the Scarlet and Gray athletes are once more in the running.

The tie game with Chicago, which State seemed to have won until the last 30 seconds of play, definitely established Coach Jack Wilce's eleven as a title contender.

Ohio State, after several lean years, is no longer soft picking. Any team that defeats State will know that it has been in a real football game.

Perhaps it is [illegible] State's [illegible] to win a championship, but [illegible] Wilce's team is [illegible] to have considerable to say [illegible] honors.

EXPERTS ARE DUBIOUS

No doubt there are some experts who will scoff at this viewpoint, pointing to the fact that State in four games has scored only 26 points, lacks a punch and therefore is not a great team.

True, State hasn't run up a big total but its opponents have scored less. Until Curley, the Chicago substitute, kicked a field goal in the last 30 seconds of play, State had not been scored on this year.

Ohio State is one of the very few major colleges in the country that has not had its goal-line crossed.

NATIONALS LACKED PUNCH

Washington in the American League lacked a batting punch but managed to win a pennant and a world championship. It did so by holding the opposition to fewer runs. That's State's system, fewer points.

A great defense that can keep the opposition from scoring doesn't need much of an offense to be a winner.

Chicago, a team with a recognized strong offensive, came to Columbus expecting a decisive victory. It was lucky to get a tie.

Incidentally Ohio State kept Chicago in check minus two of its best players, Karow and Young. Karow, star fullback and a great defensive player, was in the game only a few minutes. Young just a trifle over one period.

Ohio State showed me a fleet back in Klee. Karow, in the few minutes he played, proved his great worth.

JENKINS GREAT TACKLE

This is supposed to be a poor year for end, but in Cunningham and Wilson, State is well fortified.

I had been told that State lacked a long forward passer. That was bad dope. Cunningham tosses the ball a great distance and is accurate. In practice I saw him throw the ball from the center of the field over the goal posts, seemingly without any great effort.

However, no player on the Ohio State team impressed me more than Tackle Jenkins. Playing his first year, he acted like a veteran. He was in every play, a mountain on defense.

Unless I am badly mistaken Jenkins bids fair to be one of the greatest tackles ever turned out at State.

Opponents looking on Ohio State as easy picking because of past performances during 1922 and 1923 had better beware.

AS A MATTER OF FACT

Being a Criticism of the Just and the Unjust in the World of Professional and Amateur Sports

BY HARRY BRADBURY

Frank Callahan, secretary of the local boxing board, is back from Cincinnati, where he attended the National Boxing congress. He was quite enthusiastic at the trend of affairs and the manner in which mooted questions were handled. He found the body representative citizens from practically every state in the Union. New York and New Jersey were not represented. These are the two states that so far have ignored the National association, and it is just hard to understand why the National association does not ignore them. They must have a world of patience. "It is only a question of a short time until the association will control boxing nationally," said Callahan, "that every promoter, matchmaker or boxer will be licensed, and without this they will not be permitted to box, outside of New York and New Jersey which are running the boxing game to suit themselves."

It was for many years after baseball had become an organized affair, but separate, so far as the different leagues were concerned, that the American league counted in, there was a merry war for some time, one fighting the other, with the result that neither gained while they lost. It has been the National association that has kept baseball prominently and successfully before the public. It has never been demonstrated where any sport of national importance got anywhere without centralized supervision, and it is safe to say it never will. National Jockey Club, American Amateur Association, National baseball association and on down the line, are responsible for clean sport.

IT IS TIME FOR BOXING

These are all successful and run on honest and conservative lines from centralized officials. Each is bound by drastic rules which are religiously kept. This is the only salvation for boxing. To license every single individual connected with the boxing game, is the only system that can hold the game together. The manner in which the New York and New Jersey commissions are running things, cannot help but disgust fair minded devotees of the game. It cannot and will not endure, the click controlling all boxers that they see fit to control, means that sooner or later the law will step in and stop boxing altogether. Here is one of their latest jokes, they have set Mike McTigue down for a year, because he has refused to fight Shade. Will some kind, benevolent citizen please state where or when he ever did fight. They should have disbarred him for life after his crooked deal with Young Stribling. That they are discriminating is proven when they refuse to set Dempsey or Leonard down. Challenges from worthy contestants are ignored and have been repeatedly ignored. Why these champions should be different from anyone else is not clear, why they should be allowed to choose opponent, place and time is surely not in line with the action of the boards against McTigue.

HAD BETTER IGNORE THESE BOARDS

It will be well for the National association to issue an ultimatum to these boards, to get in; in so doing the game will be run strictly on an honest basis, that they will be bound by rules all pointing towards the good of the boxing game, that it will be the aim of this association to do all within its power to uplift boxing to a plane higher than ever before, that rowdyism will not be tolerated, that outrageous purses will not be allowed, because they are detrimental to the best interests of sport, that boxing must be conducted on a fair and equitable basis; best for the boxer and a protection to the public, that dishonest managers will be barred, that boxing clubs are organized on a sound financial basis, so that boxers will not be beaten out of their money. If New York and New Jersey still continue to ignore the National association, then make a rule to disbar all boxers and managers who are members of this association from boxing anywhere else within the domain of the association. Let New York and New Jersey keep on as they are now doing, but let the rules of the association cover every boxing club, every promoter, every manager, every boxer. There is an immense influence in these two states, but there is a whole lot more outside. All interested parties will soon find this out. Either let boxing within the jurisdiction of the association be run on these lines or stop the game altogether.

SPORTS of all SORTS

Willie Lewis, managing Abe Goldstein, taught Carpenter how to box.

Pete Herman, former bantamweight champion, is running a cabaret in New Orleans.

"A good load of putting form is good," says Jock Hutchison, "develop confidence and stick to it."

Ellsworth Augustus of Cleveland is one of the longest drivers in the game, amateur or professional.

Catcher Steve O'Neill of the Red Sox started out to be a fighter but was stymied by parental objection.

Fighters agree Jack Johnson was the most scientific heavyweight the game has ever known.

Herb Pennock of the Yankees is easily the most consistent twirler among the American League's long list of southpaws.

Because of England's refusal to accept the new American model it is unlikely that a change in golf balls will be made before 1926.

Kid Kaplan of Connecticut and Danny Kramer of Pennsylvania are the two foremost challengers for the featherweight title.

For one of the few times in his long career, Stanley Coveleskie, star pitcher last season, failed to get at least a 50-50 break in games won.

British golfers like to write. The two Wethereds collaborated on a book and Cyril Tolley, now in this country, has also written one.

The veteran Hank Gowdy is loud in the praises of Baldwin, a New York recruit. Baldwin is a right hander.

Bobby Jones is considered the best brassey shot maker in American golf, if not in the world.

Coach Dobie of Cornell admits the loss of so great a player as Frank has greatly handicapped his team.

Experts predict George Von Elm of Los Angeles will win the amateur golf championship within the next three years.

George Sisler says he hopes to bat 50 points better the coming season than last. That would make him about normal.

The failure of Morrison, rated the best curve ball pitcher in the National league, to deliver, was an awful jolt to Pittsburgh. He won only 11 games.

Looks as if there was something wrong with eastern football. Illinois and Oklahoma both beat Nebraska, which in turn smothers Colgate, 33 to 7.

The goals from field specialist is beginning to make his presence felt. In the Navy-Princeton game a drop kick by a substitute won for Princeton. Penn enjoyed the same margin over Columbia.

Who is the best backfield man at Notre Dame? Four football experts in commenting on the Army game differed. Stuhldreher, Layden, Crowley and Miller each received one vote.

The consensus at University of Syracuse is that there never was better football material at that institution. Which means the students expect Coach Meehan to put over a big winner.

Pirates Will Be Speed Boys

NEW YORK—Speed will be a dominating factor in the pennant drive of the Pittsburgh Pirates next season. Already the fastest club in the senior circuit, the acquisition of George Grantham from the Chicago Cubs has given the Buccaneers a monopoly on speed.

The 1925 Pirates will boast probably the four most proficient base stealers in the National league. Max Carey, who, like Eddie Collins, seems to gather speed with age, led the Heydler organization last season with 47 thefts, while the young outfield recruit, Hazen Cuyler, was next with 32. Pie Traynor stole 24 and Grantham 21. The former Cub has demonstrated he can do better than this, however, for he stole 43 bases in 1923, ranking second to Carey, who led with 51.

Besides this quartet, Manager McKechnie has other speed merchants in Eddie Moore and Glenn Wright, 1924 rookie sensations, and Carson Bigbee, outfielder.

The Pirates supplanted Chicago as the most prolific base-stealing club last season. They recorded 180 thefts, 47 more than the Cubs, who were next in line.

Punts and Smashes

Nine carloads of cinders for use on the cinder track at College field have been donated the board of education by the B. & O. Railroad Co.

Five carloads already have been delivered at the field and four more will come within a few weeks. The track itself will be ready for use next spring.

The Lima fire department Wednesday donated the services of a hose truck and sprinkled the football field, which had become unusually dry and dusty due to the long dry period.

IOWA MEETS ILLINOIS; HAS UNCHANGED LINE

CHICAGO — Illinois, Western Conference leader, will encounter a team with a line fifteen pounds heavier to the man in its meeting with Iowa Saturday in the premier Big Ten contest of the week. The Illini forwards, averaging 185 pounds, will be matched with a combination averaging 200, with Griffith, Hawkeye center, the heaviest at 228.

The teams which fought a sensational battle at Iowa City last year, when Illinois won, 9 to 6, will be virtually unchanged this year. The Iowans lost only Fullback Miller, Kriz, a star tackle and two second stringers. The Illini dropped McMillen, mighty guard, and Green, a center, and recently lost Crawford, declared ineligible.

Illinois has played the Hawkeys six times, scoring four victories and encountering two defeats.

Both squads finish heavy scrimmage today.

Elsewhere in the conference stiff practice also has been finished. Michigan entrains today for Minneapolis, where the final preparation of Minnesota is being devoted to punting.

Indiana completes its grooming today for Northwestern at Evanston for which it entrains tonight.

New plays calling for intricate shifts and double passes have formed Chicago's drills for Purdue this week and for Illinois here November 8.

The Purdue Boilermakers are tapering off their rehearsals and leave tomorrow morning for Chicago.

Coach Wilce at Ohio State is concerned with his team's attack. While Saturday's game with Wooster is regarded as a rest for the Buckeyes, future clashes with Indiana, Michigan and Illinois are being kept in mind.

BY HENRY L. FARRELL

NEW YORK — (By United Press)—Sectional championships may hang on three big games featuring the football card offered fore national amusement next Saturday.

Illinois and Iowa meet at Urbana in the most important game of the Western conference since the Michigan-Illinois game. It will be a game of more than sectional interest because the whole country will be watching to see if Iowa is able to stop that great star, Red Grange.

Iowa is coached by a former Illinois associate of Bob Zuppke who may know a lot of things about Illinois' game but Zuppke hardly will depend upon last year's stuff. So far this year the Illinois team hasn't been forced to show a thing more than Grange and it is quite certain that it has more equipment than one running back, great as he is.

In the east where championships can't be decided as officially as they can in the organized middle west, two undefeated and untied teams meet at Philadelphia in the Lafayette-Penn game. Lafayette has been thru a harder test this year and is the favorite.

Syracuse plays another important eastern game against Pittsburgh at Syracuse. Pittsburgh has been beaten but Pittsburgh teams are always dangerous.

The Pacific coast will be interested in both games as there is a fine chance to have an eastern championship team play against a representative California team in the annual post season classics. Penna has a game scheduled with California and Syracuse is to play Southern California.

The coast championship may be cleared Saturday also at California.

California and Southern California meet in the first of their "Big Three" games. Two picture games will also add an interesting feature to Saturday's program.

The strong Army team plays Yale at New Haven and Notre Dame plays Georgia Tech at South Bend. The betting favors the Army and Notre Dame.

Central High Works Hard; Has Speed

Central high football team went thru a snappy practice session at College field Wednesday night in preparation for the game here Saturday with Middletown.

The team appeared to have more life and speed in Wednesday's workout than it has shown for several weeks.

In a practice game, the feature of the evening's session, the first and second teams displayed some nice football. Herbst, first-string fullback, made some pretty runs for big gains, and on one occasion advanced the ball to a position where the team took it over for a touchdown.

Altho the locals are doped to lose Saturday, they intend to upset the calculations of the dopesters, Captain Stanyer said Wednesday. Middletown beat Findlay 7 to 0, and Findlay beat Central 13 to 0, and on the face of this it would seem that Middletown is the stronger. But Middletown beat Findlay only by a streak of luck, it is said, while Central playing way off form against Findlay, should have put up a better game than it did.

PROVIDENCE, R. I. — Mike McTigue, world's light heavyweight champion knocked out Frankie Carpenter in the fifth round of a scheduled 10-round fight here.

NEWARK, N. J., Mickey Walker, of Elizabeth, N. J., world's welterweight champion, outpointed Jock Malone, St. Paul middleweight, in 12 round match.

Grid Games Promised Delphos

DELPHOS — Delphos Merchants will meet the St. Marys city football team in this city, next Sunday afternoon, at the S. Clay st field. Two weeks ago, the St. Marys aggregation defeated the locals by a score of 12-0 but the dope has shifted since that time, declared L. A. Metcalfe, local manager.

After defeating Wharton by a score of 20-6 last Sunday, a nightly scrimmage is slowly developing a formidable football machine. Many new and fast plays have been introduced, and from all indications the St. Marys eleven will be forced to launch a terrific onslaught in every department to gain another victory.

Reed and McDonald, in the backfield make a combination that are hard to stop, while Urich, who was responsible for one of the touchdowns made Sunday, and Judkins at the end positions are accurate in receiving Smith's aerial game.

DELPHOS HIGH

DELPHOS — In preparation for the game with Wapakoneta's gridders, the Delphos High School mentor, Gorrell, is doing all in his power to whip the squad up to a victorious state of mind by Nov. 1, on which day the game will be played at the E. Cleveland st. field.

Redd, star half-back, who missed several games on account of a dislocated toe, is now back in the game with Vogt, at full, Stauphalt, and Knapp, quarter, who compose the secondary wall. Gorrell is spending much of his time on the linemen, teaching the fine points of the defensive and offensive game.

NEW YORK—(By Associated Press)— Stock prices moved irregularly higher at the opening of today's market, the Conservative victory in the British elections being regarded as a favorable influence. H. R. Mallinson, moved up a point to 28¾, a new high on the movement. Rails continued to reflect the unusually favorable September earnings statements and oils responded favorably to the ninth successive weekly decrease in crude production.

Heavy selling of the sugar issues based on unfavorable trade news failed to unsettle the rest of the list. American Sugar Refining common dropped 1½ to 36 and the preferred 2¼ to 77¼, both at new low prices for the year. Other sugars yielded fractionally. Chicago Yellow Cab, which was under pressure early in the week, rallied 2¾ while American Can, Mack Trucks, Union Pacific and Chesapeake and Ohio preferred sold a point or more above last night's final quotations. Marked strength of foreign exchange in reflection of the Conservative victory in the British elections featured the foreign exchange market. Other European exchanges showed slight improvement.

Lowering of the renewal rate on call money to two per cent stimulated short covering in the late morning trading and the general list swung upward under the leadership of the standard industrial issues. Bullish demonstrations were most pronounced in the merchandising issues, Sears Roebuck climbing 4⅜ to 119⅝, the highest price since the declaration of a 40 per cent stock dividend in 1920, and United Drug touching a new 1924 high at 101, up 2½. American Tobacco B, Inland Steel preferred and American Smelting preferred, sold at their best prices of the year. One of the features of the railroad group was the brisk demand for the Pittsburgh and West Virginia "rights" which moved up 1½ points to a record top at 11. Good gains also were recovered by General Electric, Allis Chalmers, U. S. Cast Iron Pipe and Atlantic Refining.

BEAR INFLUENCE IN GRAINS

General Downturn of Prices In Early Dealings

SETBACK NEARLY 2 CENTS

Corn and Oats Follow Movement of Wheat

CHICAGO — (By Associated Press) — Grain underwent a general downturn in price today during the early dealings. There was a decided pause in the aggressive buying which was such a powerful factor yesterday in hoisting corn values and strengthening other cereals. Unresponsive action of the Liverpool wheat market today in the face of yesterday's advances here had an evident bear influence. Wheat opening prices which ranged from 5-8 to 1 1-8c lower with December $1.43 1-4 to 1.43 1-2 and May $1.48 1-2 to 1.48 3-4; were followed by a setback that in some cases went nearly two cents under yesterday's finish.

Corn and oats declined with wheat. After opening unchanged to one cent off December $1.06 3-8 to 1.06 3-4, corn fell 1 to 1 1-2c under the final figures of yesterday.

Oats started at 1-8c to 1-2c down. December 50 1-8 and later continued to sag.

Lower quotations on hogs acted as a weight on the provision market.

ALLEN-CO WINS STATE HONORS

Bassett Pig Litter of 3,028 Pounds Sets Record

Allen-co has the distinction this year of having the heaviest litter of pigs raised in the state, J. W. Wuichet, animal husbandry specialist of Ohio State university, said Thursday while in Lima conferring with H. J. Ridge, county farm agent.

The litter, which weighed 3,028 pounds 180 days after the 12 pigs were farrowed, is the property of Harrison Bassett, of Bath-tp. The pigs are of the big type Poland China breed.

Bassett's litter weighs 233 pounds more than the second heaviest litter in the state, Wuichet said. The litter is not only the biggest in Ohio this year but it is also bigger than the record litter of last year, which weighed 2,970 pounds, he said.

TRADE RECOVERY IS SLOW

Spotty Conditions Mark Movements in Business Channels

BUYERS ARE CAUTIOUS

Lima Trust Report for November Reveals True Conditions

"The failure of the business recovery, which began in August, to assume larger proportions has been a disappointment to business men generally," says the Lima Trust Business Survey for November.

"So far as the figures of production and trade indicate, the increased output that has occurred cannot be regarded as other than seasonal in character. The failure of business to improve more extensively is ascribed by many to a lack to confidence in the outcome of the elections, but closer students of fundamental business conditions point out that a spotty and slow recovery from a period of severe depression is characteristic of the early stages.

"It is clear from the indexes that the advance in security prices which had been prophesied by many observers has not materialized. Bond prices, tho a little above the September figures, are below those of August. The prices of both industrial stocks and railroad shares have fallen for the second successive month, the latter being now more than four points below the August figures. The volume of bank credit transaction, which is larger than a year ago, indicates a very large volume of business activity—primarily a result of the extraordinary movement of grain at relatively high prices. The increase in railway car loadings over the summer months is also primarily attributable to the large crop movement. The advance in agricultural prices is likewise reflected in the sharp increase in the Annalist index number of wholesale food prices.

CAUTIOUS ATTITUDE

"The commercial reviews indicate a very cautious attitude on the part of traders and buyers everywhere. Moderate and leisurely business gains with no appreciable lessening of the irregularities and contrasts in industrial and commercial developments, is the best that the trade reviews have to offer. There is some irritation that the high prices of farm products have not as yet led to any large increase in farm purchasing. Of course it is not altogether clear why the farmers, who have been so repeatedly urged to get out of debt, should begin to squander their present gains almost before they are realized.

"The two most striking features in the foreign situation during the past month have been the successful flotation of the German loan, and the revelation of a very unsatisfactory agricultural situation in Europe. The loan was quickly and substantially oversubscribed by the bond houses participating in the enterprise. Such an oversubscription was to be expected in view of the fact that it was pre-arranged that the banking houses would float the loan. The disposition of the securities to potential investors constitutes another problem. There is little reason to believe, however, that the loan will not be absorbed in the course of a few months.

"This year's falling harvests mean that the European countries will have to purchase much larger quantities of foodstuffs than last year, and thus once again imperil their international balance of payments. Thus America's gain thru rising prices of farm products is Europe's loss. While European needs may bring to the American farmer a temporary boom, any development that tends to retard European economic recovery must in a larger sense be regarded as an unfavorable element in the world economic situation."

GUM PLAYS BIG PART IN U.S.

Billions of Sticks Used Each Year, Report Shows

WASHINGTON (By United Press) — Movie fans of the world—and others who like to give their jaws exercise—chewed enough gum last year if each stick were placed end to end, to circle the earth 210 times

This bit of figuring by John D Shea an expert statistician was based on the announcement of the Department of Commerce that chewing gum worth $1...,24 ... was manufactured in the United states in 1923

And further said Shea ... assuming that each of the 1,2..,000 ... sticks estimated on the production on the basis of the department valuation was chewed for half an hour we have 37... 000 billion jaw motions for consumption of the year's output We ... estimated at the rate of 1?? chews per minute

While officials of the Bureau of Statistics denied they had been asked to estimate the amount of lost energy in connection with this gum chewing, others figured the wasted effort was enough to move the earth 10 feet from its orbit and disturb the mental balance of most of its citizens

That chewing gum is profitable to manufacture was shown by the department's figures for the year salaries and wages to the 2... persons employed in its manufacture in 4? plants amounted to $3,173,77? The cost of all materials, including fuel and container, was $1?,457,188 The difference in the producing cost and the value listed under the caption, value 32 1 by ... manufacture was $2 ,383,726

Of the 4? establishments reporting for 1923 eight were located in New York five each in Illinois and New Jersey four in California three each in Massachusetts and Ohio, two each in Delaware Missouri Pennsylvania and Tennessee and one each in Indiana, Kentucky Maine Maryland Michigan Nebraska Rhode Island Texas and Virginia

American chewing gum has taken a firm hold on Europe where U S soldiers introduced it during the World War The five per cent increase in production value last year over that of 1922 was attributed to the export demand

12 Youngsters Get Chance To Go To School

OKLAHOMA CITY Okla (By United Press) The Oklahoma City school board decided recently that it would not be setting a bad precedent if it granted free tuition to the children of John H Snider cotton grower and dairyman living near here

Snider has twenty two children twelve of them desired to enter school

There's distinction of Snider here family He and his ever growing family moved to Oklahoma City thirteen years ago flat broke Not one of his children ever went hungry, Dad Snider boasts

Here's an inkling of how much Snider's family eats A yearling calf was slaughtered a few days ago Five days later the last bone went into soup Six quarts of milk are used at a meal

Snider is 66 years old and has been married 24 years His wife was ?? years old when they were married

FRANCE TO EDUCATE FARMERS WITH MOVIES

PARIS The cinema world has offered its services to aid in the campaign against the high cost of living now being made by the French government The president of the association of cinema directors Leon Brezillon has offered the ... of ... screens to educate the farmer and to get him to improved ways of raising food stuffs

Mr Brezillon as an example of what might be done ... that the poor ear of corn as raised in the eastern provinces of France which counts hardly 50 grains might be contrasted on the screen with that from the Prairie country which have three or four times as many He would show also the latest forms of machinery for cultivation and the most profitable methods of raising poultry

DAWES HITS LAFOLLETTE AS WEAKENING IN FIGHT

ST LOUIS — Charles G Dawes Republican candidate for vice president traveled across Missouri today to St Joseph to deliver tonight in the territory west of the Mississippi his final attack on the La Follette independent candidacy

Comparing the present campaign to a boxing match Dawes here last night declared that Senator La Follette like many people in a fight had begun to weaken about the thirteenth round and added when every attempts to explain in a fight it is an indication that he realizes that he is beaten

NO USERS FOR CANES

LONDON There is some speculation as to what Queen Alexandra will do with a collection of the late King Edward's walking canes when she returns to Marlborough House A large rack contains the favorite canes used by the king, which tells the story of the walking stick in the last century He was rarely seen without one and always brought back a few from his many visits abroad

WAR VETS URGE WORLD PEACE

10,000,000 Ex-Serivce Men Organize for Drive

PLAN RELIEF PROGRAM

Nine Countries Representea in Organization

WASHINGTON — (By United Press)—Bent upon establishing a long world peace and aiding the war disabled the Fidac, an interallied world war veterans association, intends to push an ambitious program during the coming year.

The Fidac represents ex service men organized in the nine allied countries totaling ten million members Col Thomas W Miller, U S Alien Property Custodian, was recently elected president of the organization and will leave for Paris soon to direct activities

At a meeting in Paris five years ago of ex service men from all allied countries the Fidac was organized America was represented at that meeting by the National Commander of the American Legion F W Galbraith, Headquarters of the organization is in Paris and its recent president was Deputy Charles Bertrand, ... of the French Chamber of Deputies and a distinguished veteran of the French army

Col Miller a former war veteran and prominent in American Legion circles He was chairman of the resolutions committee at the San Francisco convention in 1923 He is a former congressman from Delaware and a graduate of Yale University Miller entered July 1917 as a private in the army and was discharged as a lieutenant colonel in September 1919 He served eleven months in France and received a citation for gallantry in action. Miller also is a member of the American Battle Monuments commission appointed to select suitable sites in European battlefields where memorials in honor of American troops killed in the war may be erected

American delegates to the Fidac are selected by the American Legion At the annual congress in London a short time ago women auxiliaries of the allied veterans associations were taken into the membership

A selection of the League of Nations devoted to ex-service men and their problems " said Col Miller "has been suggested, and the Fidac has been invited to be the contact point between the League and the ex service men If this plan is carried out we will have an unofficial observer at Geneva Plans are also being made to have representatives participate unofficially in the Arms Conference to be held in Europe next summer

While this is unofficial it is an indication that the powers that be in the foreign countries realize that when they are making plans for a lasting peace they will receive the utmost of help from the men and women who suffered most directly from the privations of the recent war. Plans are also in force to work for the disabled men and women who served in the war and also ... in Europe and in America"

LUTHERANS PLANNING SCHOOLS FOR CHILDREN

CHICAGO The Lutheran Church in America is undertaking an elaborate campaign of religious education of its young people in order to counteract the distracting influence exerted upon the boys and girls by modern amusements

Leaders of the church have noted in the last decade a tendency toward a decline in the power of the church to attract young people and have felt the lure of the movies and similar amusements is coaxing away the boys and girls who should become future church leaders

The educational program is being organized by the Lutheran Parish and Church School Board. It calls for the establishment of church schools Bible study and week day schools for religious education Emphasis is made upon the week day schools as a most important step in the church effort to develop young men and women imbued with ambition to promote the work of the church
